GOULD ACADEMY

GOULD ACADEMY
1996

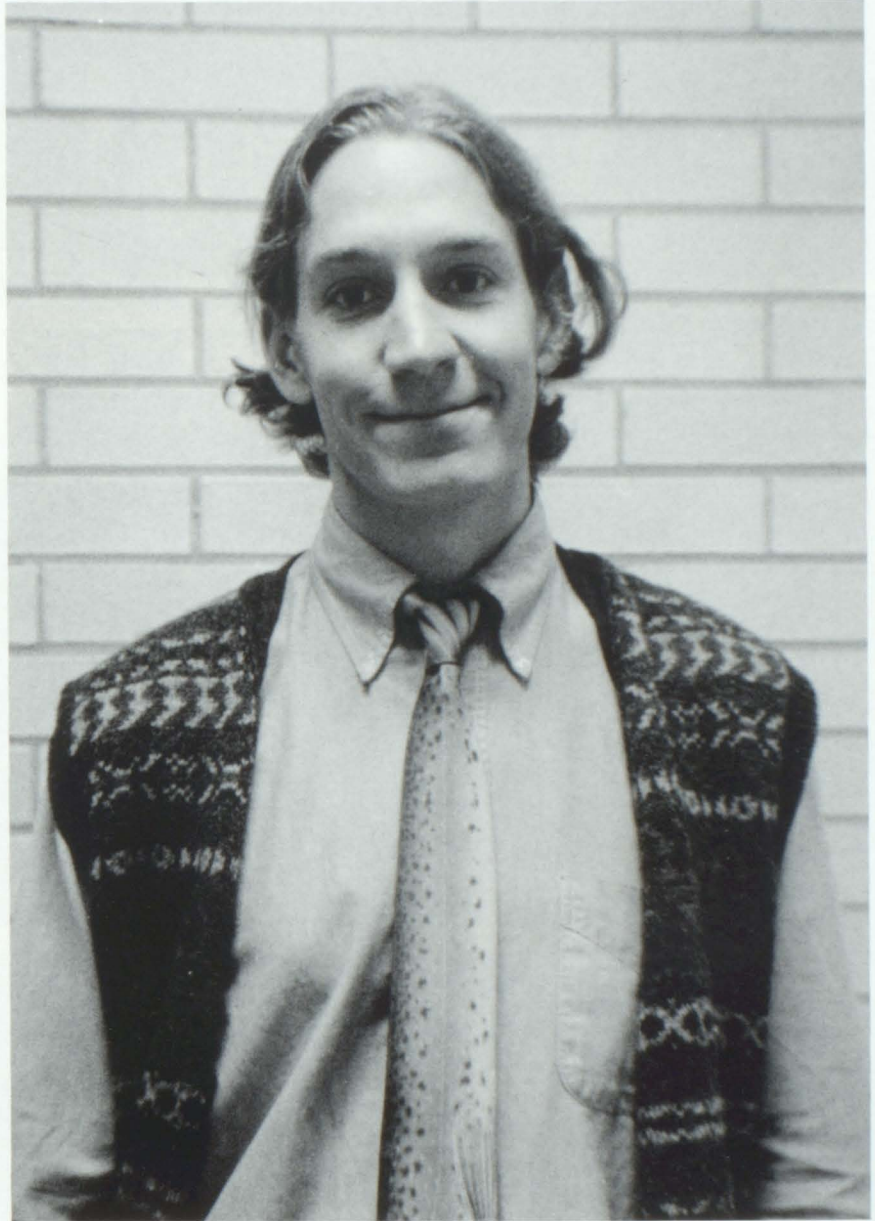

Dedication

There are many aspects of Gould Academy which are not obvious to the casual observer. Much time and effort is put in 'behind the scenes', in many different ways. Whether through driving buses to games, helping clean up after school events, or just keeping things together in general, John Provincher contributes enormously to the school. The Senior Class would like to dedicate this year-book, of the year 1996, to him, as a thank-you for all the efforts he has made. From supporting us at sports events, to chatting with us at lunch, thanks John, and good luck in the future.

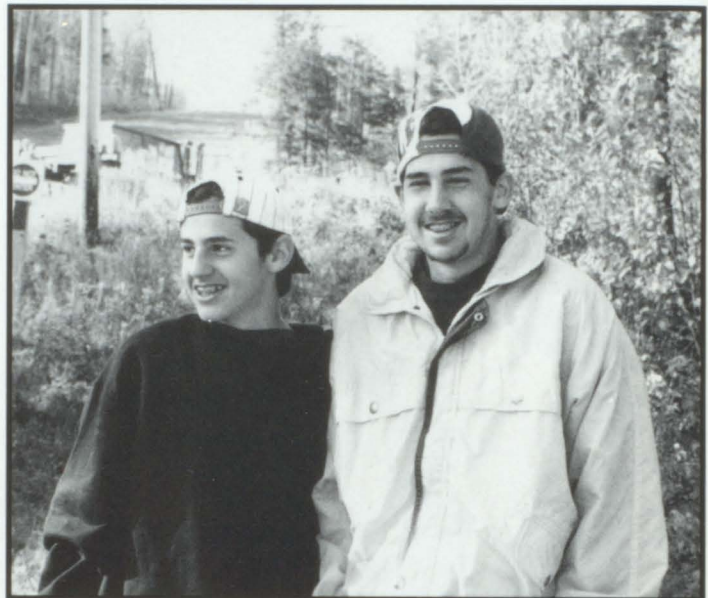

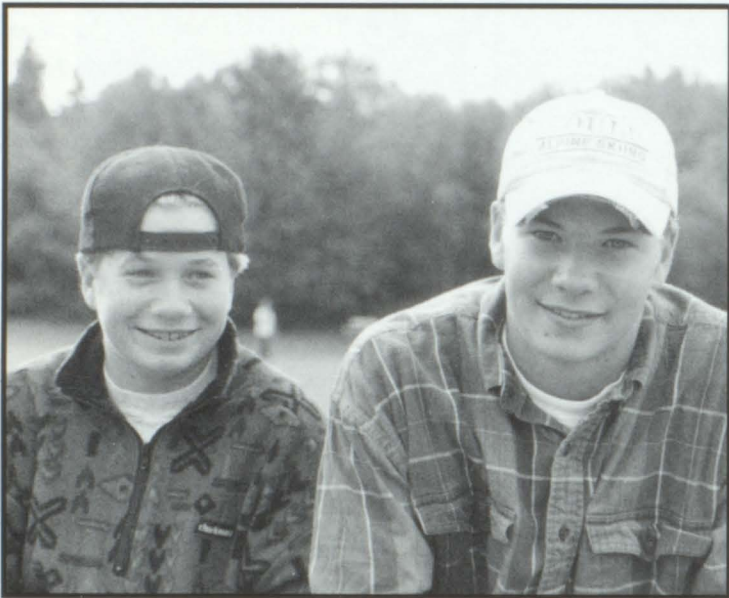

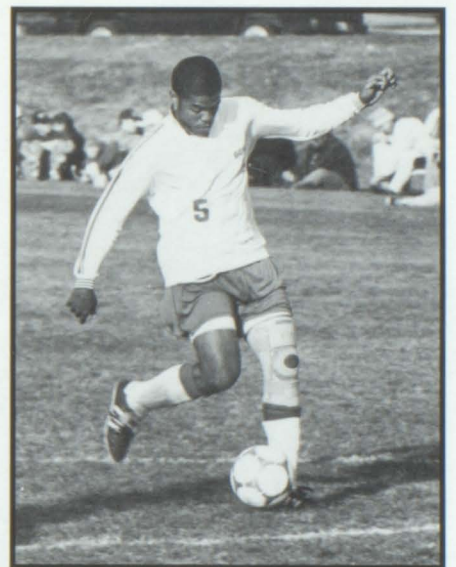

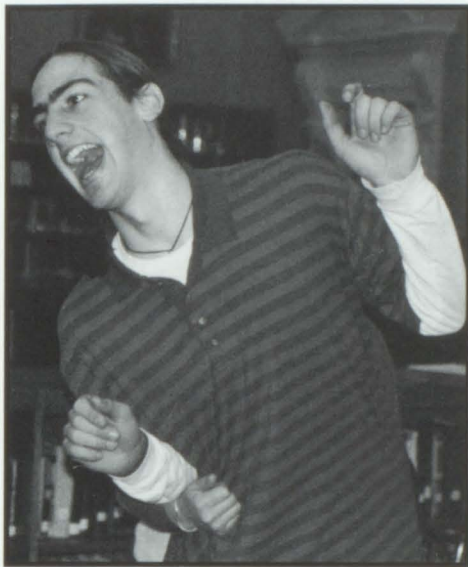

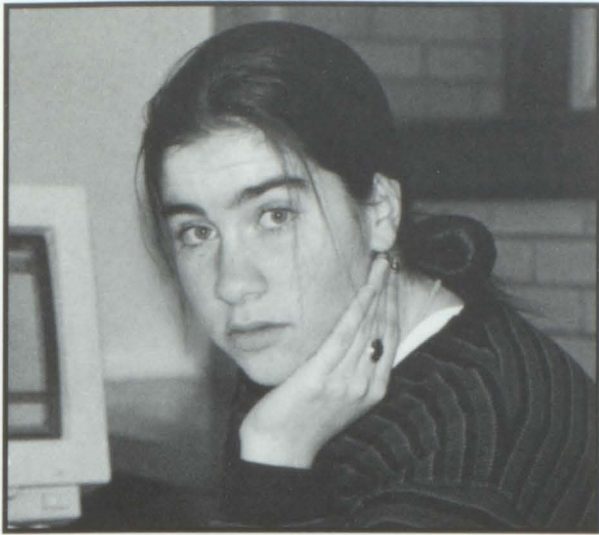

Appreciation

Mr. Janicki is still a student, and thus has gained a special place in our minds. He has related to us and joked with us, complained with us, and empathized with us. He helped us to organize ourselves in many ways, from 4-Point to giving us perspective when all seemed hopeless in the middle of the winter. Our supreme thanks got out to you, Mr. Janicki, and we hope you gain much fame and fortune in the years to come.

mom and dad I love you both. and I just want to say thank you for being there for me whenever I needed you.

To that special girl out there, you know who you are, and I just wanted to say I love you. Norge.

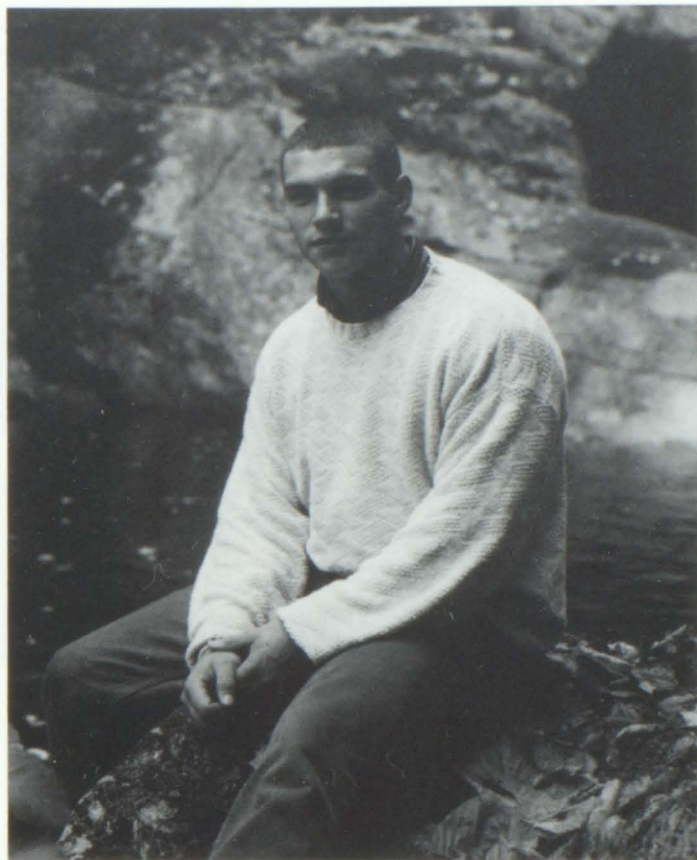

Wes we have had some great times together and there are a lot more to come I hope that you are successful in whatever you decide to do. Watch out for BMW's.

Jackie I hope everything works out for you in the future, and that we stay in contact with each other after next year. You have to have fun to win Jackie, and yes I can run fast.

Jarrood have fun at VMI it's really you. and only 17 more years before you can become president, good luck.

Mom, Dad and Family — Thank you for the love and support through out my years at Gould I am forever grateful.

Mr. Newell — Thank you for being a great adviser, friend and baseball coach. I will always be grateful for you keeping me in line and keeping me out of trouble, I am forever grateful.

Mr. and Mrs. Dohrmann — Thank you for being the family at Gould I needed to get by. Ben don't forget. Ms. Whalen — You and I go a long way thank you for being a friend and thank you for all the cookies. Keep in touch. Anna F. — Thank you for being more than just a friend you've talked me through some serious problems and I love you for it and I will never forget you.

Jessica F — Thank you for being like a sister and being there when I needed you I will always love you and remember you thanks.

Jen L — Thank you for all the great times we've spent together. You have been more than a girlfriend and I wish I could write down all the ways you've helped, comforted, and cared for me. I will always care for you and think of you with all my heart.

Amanda S — Someday I'll start hitting you back because I'm drinking milk and milk makes you strong. I have had a great year with you and I hope you keep in touch.

Jarrod C — Keep working on the hook and watch the elbows. You've been a great friend and when you're president don't forget me love your favorite point guard.

Lanny P — Keep playing ball and don't forget us little people that give you big tall people the ball. Keep pimpin, keep in touch and don't forget your boys.

Chip — When you become a big director and you need some to play the role of a baseball player you know who to call. Keep in touch and don't forget us "little" people maybe you and Lanny can come give me a visit in New York.

Jackie — When you own the Noodle industry you can find my address in the back of the yearbook and you could send me a box or two. And "fink about it" don't forget your boys and keep playing soccer. Justin — Maybe if you had listened your knee would be fine but that what you get for not listening to the man. Hope your knee gets better and when your playing soccer professionally don't forget me the one and only. Jeremy — I don't know how you made it living with Jackie but you did know college will be a cinch. Keep in touch

Dave B — Mexico keep in touch and don't forget Rich L — There are many things I could call you but only one word comes to mind "PIMP" keep in touch and don't forget about your good friend BIG Shawn.

4 year people — For all those people that put up with me for 4 years we did it and I hope you all have a great time in college.

Jarrod Crockett

Dad: I owe you everything . . . including good looks!

Uncle Bob: If like is a book, I dedicate the first chapter to you.

The Family: Thank you for making me proud to be who I am.

Shawn: 4 years of memories and a lifetime of friendship

Justin: You cannot have progress without struggle, so keep it up and you'll make it.

Dylan: The artist is the community's heart, but the politician is the community's mind.

Batten: Let your conscience be your guide.

Provencher: I told you I wouldn't forget. The 4 F's. Larry: Whooooo-deeeee-whoooooo, man!!!!

Rich: From cold mornings came warm feelings. If you ever need me, I'm there.

Jen "The Hummergirl": Confidence is the first step to success.

Vail: Crazy and fun to the end.

Freshmen: Remember to give to the institution as well as receive. You'll always be a part of Gould because it's a part of you.

Jackie: You have to have fun to weeen!!!!

Chip: Their is a difference between being famous and infamous.

Lanny: Your long stride will always keep you a step ahead

Ms. Carlson: You were a great advisor, for all 4!!!

Chuck: Success is imminent.

"To The Girl I always picked on": I really liked you but I never had the nerve to tell you.

BJ, J.R., Millett, Nate, Matt: The show is all yours. "Scottish Lass:" Your charisma, class, and beauty don't define you, they're a part of you. Your spirit is your essence.

All men die, but few really live.

To anybody who ever tried to teach me anything, Thank-you.

Anna French

"Dakota" (only by folks like Sysko and Herberich, however)

"If you were happy everyday of your life, you wouldn't be a human being. You'd be a gameshow host." — Heathers

MOM: Without your help, I would have been a nobody. Thanks for everything. JAKE: I love you as much as I'd love you to be nice to the dog. Rock on, Red Ranger.

MR. ALFORD: My initial thought was that, as a teacher, you and fun went together like oil and water, but you proved me dead wrong many a time, kid. Thanks for being human, and thanks for the chats. They helped me more than you know.

MARANCIK — Marancikly speaking, I'll make it short and sweet. After-shocks that shook the room, midnight line-dancing, truces up the wazoo, 24-7 outfits. Maybe we should formulate some kind of hands-off policy for vanrides. I love you, toots. MAGNOLIA: "Never forget that only dead fish swim with the stream." Long Live The Groovy One. BROWNE — What's in those Pepsi cans anyway? Always remember — I live and breathe on this earth for you, Bermuda. MORALES: Mr. Tall, Dark, and Handsome, I love you like crazy and P.S. I AM over him. LISCOMBE: My vocabularily oriented friend, jut think, in college my academic week probably won't start until Wednesday or so. "grin" The coolest kid around, but a "loser magnet", nonetheless. KUZYSK: Did you ever stop to think that maybe a love for sports like hockey actually changes a guy for the worse? Lova ya' kid. PAQUETTE: Oh, by the way, Boog, YOU lost. MONZEL: This bud's for you. RISS: Your halo's not crooked, yet, but I'm working on it. I have this picture of you, Riss, and you have no shirt on. Would you believe it?! Whoops, did I say "skier jock?!" LANNY: Is this where I "give props"? Good luck, Long Legs, you'll need it. The Golden Rule: Endangered species stay uncontaminated. JACQUES: Yo, you got the @#!&? It's just cuz' Jennifer is Jennifer, right? Stay out of trouble, J.J. Oh, and about the "doo-doo on certain people's faces" idea . . . I'm gonna have to take a raincheck. AMBER: Officer Gene Allen, wait, what?! Live long, be happy, and kick Ava if you see her. FERNANDEZ: There's no need to smile, just keep your eyebrows up. 3 years of warped spanish, beautiful voices (we should go on the road), raisins and other various codewords, the laughs, my breakdowns, and of course, the dreaded but endured winters. I'll always love you like the stars above. Perhaps, even till I die. Smiles. LEIPOLD: Mr. Din-O-saur, don't forget the good times, Jen, and Kahlua IS nasty. You're crazy. RACKLIFFE: Raxwell, the lovestruck romeo. Frazzled, fidgety, doodling boy, I certainly won't forget you, but only because who else wears that CRAZY yellow hat? Oh yeah, I AM older than you. CARDELLO: Excuse me, Italian Baker, but is plugging, chugging and recreating really the key to life? Have fun, kid. It's what keeps you grinning. LONG LIVE NHS!!!!!! (without me)

Jenn Leipold

Mom and Dad — I love you. Thank you for everything you've done for me. I would not be where I am today if it weren't for you.

Katie — my "little sis" — I love you. Just don't pierce too many parts of your body or you'll start leaking!

Anna "Susan B. Anthony" French — Don't forget our junior turkey break and Mr. Di-no-saur!

Shawn — I don't know where to begin for you. You mean so much to me. Thank you for making my two years here fun and memorable. I hope you get everything you strive for. I love you.

Jessica F. — Thanks for always being there to cheer me up. Good luck in the future.

Vicky — We did it! We're out of here! (After 5 long years!) Thanks for making Eco. class half fun! Good luck in years to come.

Shelley — my early morning Java House buddy — We have had many a good conversation as the sun rose above the horizon. Good luck in all your endeavors. You deserve the best.

Madame — Maitre corbeau sur un arbre perche/ tenait un son bec un fromage, . . . Thank you for everything.

To Jeremy, Justin, Lanny, The Gov, Goodman, Eugene, Marancik, Chip and everyone else that I may have forgotten — I'm sorry, but hey, nobody's perfect. Thanks for everything. Good luck to y'all.

FUNK THAT!

AMBER MCKENZIE

Anna G. — You are the bestest friend I have ever had. Thank you so much for showing me that it really doesn't matter that much. And in ten years no one will care anyway . . . We done some crazy stuff girl, do your legs feel like sausages because my knees are sure cold. SHHHHH the boat police are coming. Hey put the lunch pail in the trunk. Along with those ugly silver shoes. Then we'll go to the port get some color bluh drive on down to Biddaford and get coffee. Sound like fun? I love you honey. Stewart — You're the craziest person I have ever met. Be careful and don't get caught. I will be down shortly to keep you in line. Then we can get married, sit in our yacht, and cause lots of trouble. I love you.

Casey and Jeremy — How many shooting stars did we count that night? You guys are the best. Thanks for making me laugh when I needed it most. You all seem to show up at the right time.

Bean — We have alternative plans for study hall. A swim maybe?

Hannah — Can you believe that it has been four years Corky? We have come a long way. I'll miss you with all my heart. Keep in touch.

Chloe — I have never met such a wonderful, understanding person in my whole life. You truly are an angel.

Anna F. — We are not evil, we are just very opinionated. I consider it harmless fun. You are the one person who can always make me laugh.

Jess F. — 1 more year. Good luck and have as much fun as possible. I will miss you. I luv ya hon.

Molley M — Be careful of boys with bad intentions and the boat police. They are both out to get you.

Mandy S. — You are a wild, crazy, mexican jumping bean thank for everything.

Shon — I want you and your Yukon . . .

Vickie B — I will get you three donuts, a box of devil dogs, and ten ice cream sandwiches. Then all I need is a giant cup of french vanilla coffee. And only then will we be happy.

Meghan S — Someday we will have our revenge.

Christine M. — Two more years, I truly feel sorry for you. (You only like him cause he is pretty.)

Dr. O — Thank you for all the great advice and all the wonderful food.

The Greenglass Family — You are my second family. Thank you for treating me like a fourth daughter. It means a lot to me. I love you guys.

Mom and Dad — I want to thank you for giving me this opportunity. You do so much for me. I want you to know that I am very grateful and that I love you both bigger than the sky. (and the sky never ends) Jonathan — I have seen you go from a baby to a little man in only five years. You are my little brother kid whether you like it or not and I love you more than anything.

"so were okay were fine, cause baby I'm here to stop your crying. I'll chase all the ghosts from your head. I'm stronger than the monster beneath your bed. I'm smarter than the tricks played on your heart. We'll look at them together then we'll take them apart. Add it up to a total of a love that true. Multiply life by the power of two." — Indigo Girls

Molly Maloney

All that left me — You all taught me a hard lesson — No matter how much I love something, things change. The true test is keeping that love. I miss you all.

All I'm leaving — "We can't all, and some of us don't. That's all there is to it" — Eeyore

Seniors — Rivers know this: There is no hurry. We shall get there someday.

4-Year Seniors — Here we go, breaking out, flying high. Good luck and never forget anything, like at TropiBurger!

Ber-Head — We are too much alike, I can't believe we're friends! Getting "sea sick", "shush, it's the boat police!" Thanks for leaving me with the Crazies.

The Crazies — From Motel Kansas, who's that puking on our lawn? "Laugh and the world laughs with you, snore and you sleep alone" — Anthony Burgess

Anna M. — Do you want that fajita, I still have it.

Victoria — My lesbian lover, how fast does a rumor spread?

Hannah Bess — "Those who are clever, who have Brain, never understand anything." — Pooh

Anna G. — Getting "sea sick", SMOKIN'!, His what is square!? Deyesso — "Sometimes, if you stand on the bottom rail of a bridge you lean over to watch the river slipping slowly away beneath you, you will suddenly know everything there is to be known." — Pooh

Brandy, Tim, LAO — "It isn't much good having anything exciting like floods, if you can't share them with somebody."

Mom and Dad — The last few years have taught me more than I ever wanted to know. Thank you for sparing me the brunt of it. I love you.

Jessica Neves

For my Thea:

"I will you songs from the woods . . .

Love from the fields . . .

and, summer rain; To heal your wounds and steal your pain."

"If I were here and you were there I'd meet you in-between."

I love and cherish all that you have done and been for me; you are my logic.

Your aura captures your compassion, mind and beauty inside out, and outside in. Come find me late in life; living in my farm house with my family; growing my own and . . .

"trying to live a life that's completely free."

Keep those "buckets of moonbeams coming out of your hands"

"Forever silent in the morning"

I love you

Becky: "People who don't think probably don't have brains; rather they have grey fluff that's blown into their heads by mistake". pooh bear

Mom & Dad: "You should always respect someone who can spell tuesday; even when it's not spelled correctly." pooh bear Dylan, Leah, Brock: Ever so often, for a brief moment in time, you will meet an incredible person, and you'll wish that you could know them inside-out and forever. Everyone: "When you see someone putting on his big boots, you can be pretty sure that an adventure is about to happen." pooh bear

"Life is sad, Always love . . .

Life is a bust, laying awake, and comfortable silences. All you can do,

Is do what you must.

You do what you must do, Thank you Mrs. Baker!

And you do it well." Dylan

Conclusion to L6 — "yes I am confused"

Thea Murphy

"And I will stroll the merry way
And jump the hedges first
And I will drink the clear
Clean water for to quench my thirst
And I shall watch the ferry boats
And they'll get high
On a bluer ocean
Against tomorrow's sky
And I will never grow so old again
And I will walk and talk in gardens all wet with rain"

— Van Morrison

Mom — I love you very much. Rain makes applesauce.

Dad — "He heard the soft rippling of the water, he did not know where he was nor what had brought him there. He looked up and was surprised to see the trees and sky above him" Leni — My beautiful sister, your soul is the world. I love ya sis. G&G — You both mean the world to me. I love you with all of my heart.

Doc. O, Your kindness, and thoughtfulness are immeasurable.

Thank you for giving me both of these things throughout the years.

L6 — "Counting flowers on the wall that don't bother me at all, playing solitaire til dawn with a deck of 51, smokin cigarettes, and watchin Captain Kangaroo, now don't tell us, we've nothin to do"

. . . DAZED Jessica — "In high seas or in low seas, I'm gonna be your freind. In high tide or in low tied, I'll be by your side." — Bob
My life would not be anything near the same without you. I love Madonna, and I love you too. Nothings shocking. Pooh Pooh Pooh My life with EGH, Elephant shoes CS — Ma Huang "There is a town in North Ontario, whose street lights comfort memory to spare, and in my life I still need a place to do, all of my changes were there. Blue windows behind the stars, yellow moon on the rise, big birds flying across the sky, throwing shadows on our eyes, leave us helpless."

— CSNY

"And the phone is ringin, oh my God."

My friends, "Can you imagine us years from today sharing a bench quietly? How terribly strange to be 70. Old friends memory brushes the same years silently sharing the same fears. Time it was and what a time it was. It was a time of innocence, a time of confidences."

— Simon & Garfunkel

Rich Littlefield

At first I'd like to thank my family for their support. Without you my Gould experience wouldn't have happened. Thank you for supporting me in every way conceivable. In ways you were conscious of, and ways you were not. Mom, Dad and Lindsay, without your encouragement my success wouldn't have happened. I hope that you are as proud of me and my accomplishments as I am of all of you. What ever my future holds, I have you to thank. I love you All!

GREG — We'll have to visit with chuck and sammy again sometime soon!
ERIK — "Please come carry the bike. I can't make it!" Don't forget all those doom defeats that you suffered.

ETHAN — Thanks for all the talks and the insight. Don't forget the End and those 5,000 god awful miles. It's the Maine Mall not the Auburn Mall. Don't ever change you freak! Turn your head, I gotta go! Your one of the reasons I kept my sanity, when I wanted to. Thanks for being the best friend possible.

CHIP — Thanks for saving my butt, "freent, freent, freent!" see you in the movies

B.J — Always stay "two legit, hey hey!"

NATE — Don't forget killington. "the 4 women of the night." Who'll get Zan in the end? Your a good skier but a better friend. And remember there all just Pages in the book!!

CROCKET — Thanks for dragging my butt through the woods, just stay away from that damn snowshoe. Hope you stay conscious past 8 o'clock this year. And you've got my vote!

JUSTIN — 40 dollars was a lot, but snacks were a blast. As well as the End, sorry about the wet seat! Sorry about your knee there. Hopefully i'll see you in Bermuda.

SHAWN — thanks for being a good friend. Make sure that she keeps paying.

SHON — Hi shon! Thanks for the d&d and the t.p. maybe i'll see you in the Old Port, yeah right!

LAURIE — Hey you, sorry for any bruises. What's with your tooth? Stay innocent, don't let people like me ruin you. Your a good friend, stay in touch.
JEN A. — Thanks for all the ice cream and preb's runs. Don't ever stop skiing, just don't forget why you started. Thanks for all your support. I needed someone to understand how I felt. Your a great friend, one of my best. I'll never forget you!

FRENCH — Thanks for always making me laugh when math and english were killing me. You always made me realize that I wasn't alone in academics. I still haven't received that tumble weed yet! Don't forget our pizza hut trip! 316 — Dave, Andrew and Alistair. What do I say to you guys? You guys made my senior year. Don't ever forget lobstering with Rarry the Robster! The 5 dollar reading, and the movies that followed. You guys were the best roommates and friends that anyone could want. I hope the cookie monster's jar never empties. Thanks you guys! Batter up!

Thank you to everyone that made my life at Gould an enjoyable one, if I've left you off the list, believe me you haven't been forgotten.

Thank you!!!!

The Sun

He waited in the sadness of the sun's intention
With a toy in his hand. In cloudy weather or rain
Or when the light turned to China he kept to himself
His own darkness. In the sun he knew he was followed.

The family: I love you. You have helped me learn so much and have guided me through times that I thought were impassable. I could never show how much you mean to me. Let there always be the paths through quiet green forests to the mountain top where the golden sunrise of a new day greets you with widespread arms. To everyone at Gould: I have made friends here that will last forever. I can't even begin to thank you all; R.L, H.Q, A.H, M,B, A.H, R.K, M.M, M.W, M.A, A.F, C.B, J.S, . . . all of you, there is not enough room to thank you as much as I need to. I love you all.

Richie: "King-Pimp" stay cool dude! we'll stay together . . .

It was a splendid day in spring
And outside we could hear the birds

That hadn't been killed

First off I would like to thank my parents who helped me to finish highschool and were always supporting everything I tried to do. Thank you Mr. Nelson even though you teased me and gave me the worst dead arms you always helped me in my assignments and kept me in line. Of course I am the best advisee you had.

Lanny: Three years of being roommates, of course I was only using you for the room and stereo. Naw, Dunn I'm just joking but It was a long time, five hours and someone is cracking a whip. I'm sure that I'll see you in the future. check-ya later bye.

Chip: well chip even though you kept me up till like five each morning you always made me laugh. one last time chip "cookies bye."

Anna: Hey pookie, have fun whale watching? Well Anna three years ago it was orientation the first time I met you and watched you run frantically through the woods. and now it's all over. Thanks I could always talk to you and you would always help me I'm glad I you were a good friend.

Shawn: no shawn I wouldn't rather punch my momma in the face.

Dylan: Thanksgiving break. "uh dylan where are we?" That was an experience so were your M. Mixes. I'll see you in Rhode Island and we can have a rerun.

Crocketto: Crockett you were a good friend even though you almost always had no idea what you were talking about.

Chow: "fink about it" right jacky

Leipold: Jen to bad about Cancun huh.

Vail: "i'm cold," Dumbass. what were you thinking.

Rich: Junior year and the seal went well together huh. We had some fun times, I know I'll see you later.

Go: Thanks for all those times you helped me out, Boston was where it all happened, squishee

Cardello: thanks for putting me up in Thanksgiving and making me bust my ass ice skaing.

Nate dog. Don't let these girls pull you around alright O.G

Toji, Sysko, Tate, Allard, Laurie, Katie, Betsey. Thank you, and I have a fun even though I won't be there. To all you other people at Gould have a great life.

check-ya

Lanny Popoola

First of I would like to thank my Parents for sending me to Gould. Without them I would not have been experienced all the things I did. Thank all the teachers who had to put up with me in class and during sports.

Mr. and Mrs. Dorhmann thanks for being there for me for four years. Mrs. Dorhmann, you do not have to book any more plane tickets for me. Thanks alot. To my friends Sysko, Liepold, Betsey, Vail, Dylan and all the rest of you. Bye.

Tate you are going to have to control the school now. Chow you can't score a goal in soccer without me. Shawn we have been together for four years. That is alot of memories.

Justin damn Bermudians. Do you want some cokkk-iess.

Cardello and Ilshi roommates freshman year. The room was the s..t. I am not going to play Lacrosse. Crockett how much do you bench press? Has the swelling gone down yet or do you still have the biggest set.

Liscombe I don't know what to say, when you become rich and famous don't forget moi.

French I hope you dropped your bad habits. You will never make me do what I don't want to do.

Max get Nate to teach you moves.

D you are a mack. Girls got to watch out for you.

Nate you are never going to get her. Give up. I will be back to rub my fingers in your hair.

The Bill

The beet is the most intense of vegetables. The onion has as many pages as WAR AND PEACE, every one of which is poignant enough to make a strong man weep, but the various ivory parchments of the onion and the stinging green bookmark of the onion are quickly charred by the belly juices and bowel bacteria. Only the beet departs the body the same color it went in.

Beets consumed at dinner will, come morning, stock a toilet bowl with crimson fish, their hue attesting to the powerful digestive acids and thoroughgoing microbes that can turn the reddest pimento, the orangest carrot, the yellowest squash into a single disgusting shade of brown.

At birth we are red-faced, round, intense, pure. The crimson fire of universal consciousness burns in us. Gradually, however, we are devoured by parents, gulped by schools, chewed up by peers, swallowed by social institutions, wolfed by bad habits, and gnawed by age, and by the time we have been digested, cow style, in those six stomachs, we emerge a single disgusting shade of brown.

The lesson of the beet, then, is this: hold on to your divine blush, you innate rosy magic, or end up brown. Once you're brown, you'll find that you're blue. As blue as indigo. And you know what that means:

Indigo.

Indigoing.

Indigone.

Tarek — fishing trips, sculpey, ramen, walnut, mango and raspberry, doom, forest, senior party, D.C., seinfeld, stop. You've been a good friend and roommate. Stay weird! Johhhhny Janny — fellow patriot fan, chemistry and physics partner. Mino golfing, skiing, dish duty, guys' group, julie. I will someday pay you back your $25, but you have to get me my poles. Have a good senior year! See you after you graduate from Dartmouth.

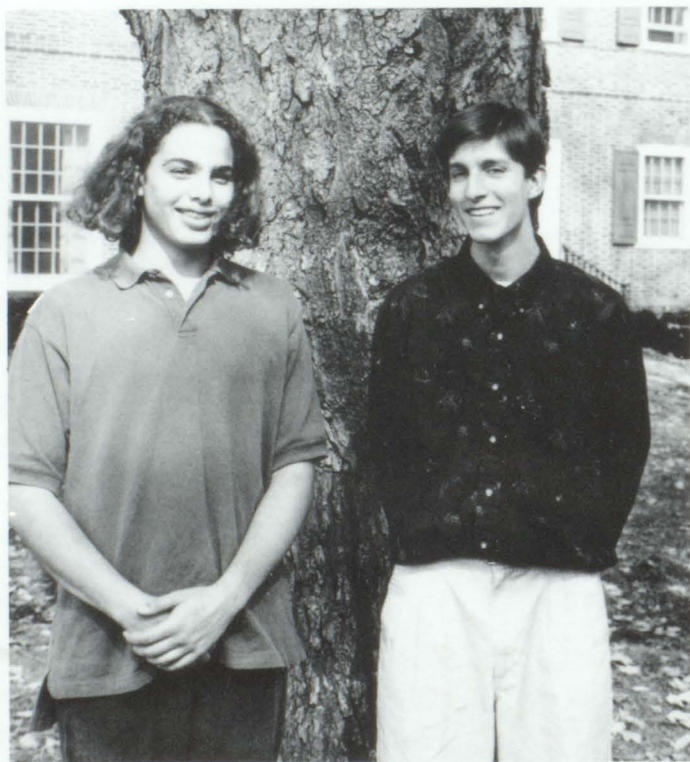

Mathias from Machias — Do ya want to go get a movie? . . . Never mind. "I loved that movie." "I hated that movie." Rotator cuff, up-pushes.

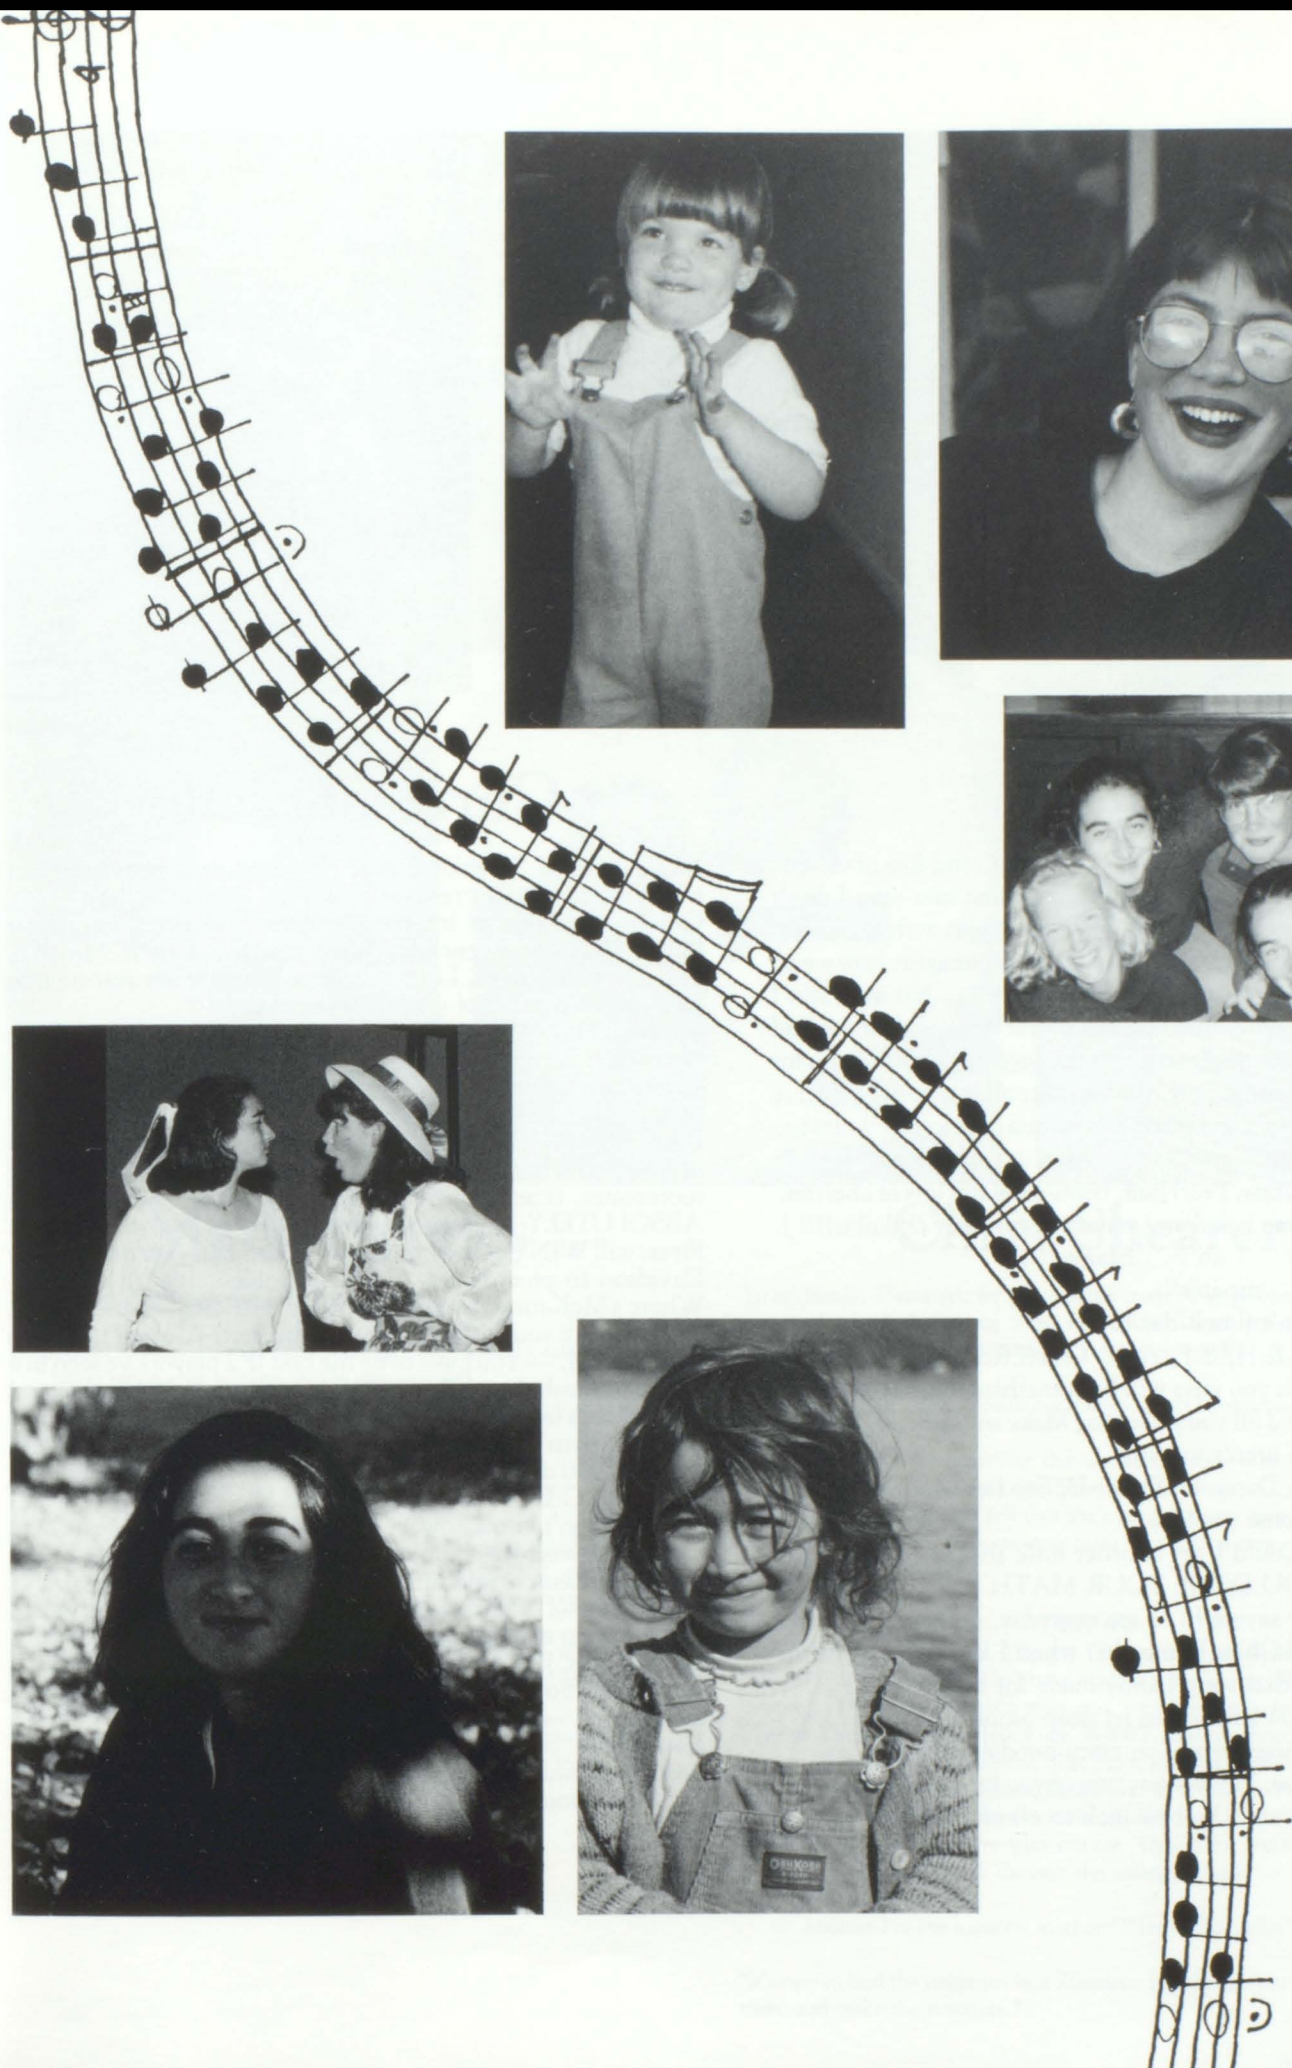

Mags — Middlebury, Dartmouth — college trip. Say hi to your sister for me.

Gwen — You're the greatest sister anyone could ever have. I love ya lots.

To my teachers — You've been great. I appreciate everything you've taught me.

Mom and Dad — Thanks for everything. You guys are wonderful and the best possible parents. I'll always love you.

Go Ishii

Jo, Zosan, Debu, Go squishy, Go eat — it, and lots of others. Cardello; I still can remember the day I first met you. I don't think I could have made it through these 4 years without watching you munch on those popcorn . . . I can't imagine how weird it would be not to see you around any more . . . but we'll see. I enjoyed being your roommate the last year here, and for the 2nd time since we were freshman, and the biggest thanks to you for everything. E. Renna; O.K, you can take all you want, so please don't fart on me . . . and you might wanna check your shorts too . . .

E. Rackliffe; Guitars, Pearl Jam, trash-cans and lots of cherries.

I. Paquette; Mama baka! and stay away from my chikubis!!!! J. Strrrrrazza; Hah . . . ah . . . Stanks!!!!

"Mag ik alstublieft naar het Java House gaan?"

Chip: Craft services and the Franklin Grange. We learned a valuable lesson . . . never sponsor an activity that is unsupervised.

Dave: shhhh it's "drama" . . . I wonder why they had that hole in them, it must have been from scratching.

Fatlips and Ron: You better watch out for Buster. He's the man

Greg: Big Ray is going to get ya . . . life sucks get a helmet.

Hacksaw: Whatever happened to that calculator?

Bonnie: Thanks for being a great friend, I couldn't have asked for more.

Hillary: The weekends at your house were great, golfing, comfortable chairs, a car washing that took a very long time, and sophomore year a few too many on the bed.

Chris: A top secret mission and they ended up with a big hole. It was a great three years: slingshots, calculators, Happy Trails?, golfing, Happy Halloween, Oscar, and lots of nipples.

Jen C: Don't forget the wine, or if you have to, get the French models.

Mom and Dad: Thank you for trusting me and standing by me in whatever I do.

Chris Shearer

To my family: Thank you for the opportunities you've given me, and the support you've backed them up with. Mr. Baker: Thank you for making it all possible. Your belief in me helps me believe in myself.

Hillary: There isn't much I could say that you don't know already, but I have to say something.

" . . . I feel fine anytime that she's around me now, and she's around me now almost all the time.

If I'm well you can tell that she's been with me now, and she's been with me now quite a long long time, yes, and I feel fine . . . "

To all my advisors: In my three years, I have had that many advisors. I learned so much from all of you. Bon, you were the greatest, we all miss you. Madam, thanks for everything, you have been the most help of all.

Alistair, we have had some great times, these three years seem to have flown by. No matter how far we drift, always stay in touch. You're one of the best friends a guy can have; even though you are an eagle.

Dave B.: Keep flyin' high. Don't ever forget our days at the Academy, they were among the best.

Chrith (Bill): Don't knock yo hea or no mo' clocks (ok? th)

Rennas': D.R. — that's all I have to say.

Straz, Smithy, Dave H, Cleary, Stinky — Long live 1331, fly high my young eagle friends

K.M. — Thanks for everything — sorry for being a pain all the time — no matter what, we'll always stay in touch, especially if what Trav says is true. You have been more to me than you can ever know.

T.M. — You were always there for me, I can never repay you for any of it. We have had our times, I'll never forget any of them.

B. Ropes — a.k.a. Jaime L, Jeff B We've been best friends for so long, I can't believe its to separate. Never forget — late night stickering w/T.M. @ D&D: Bottle rockets @ K.M.

Hannah — You have meant more to me than anyone I know. We have so many memories, I can't single out just one. I have always love you and I always will. Never forget that I would do anything for you. To everyone I have forgotten — My stay at the Academy has been short, yet long at the same time. All you guys mean the world to me, I could never attempt to thank each of you individually. I'll miss you all.

Scott S. — seven years ago you taught me how to ride. I learn something new every time we ride. I could never repay you for introducing me to the sport I have grown to love. Biss — My young Canadian friend, riding with you and Hacksaw introduced me to a new world. Stay out of trouble and never cut that crazy hair.

Mom & Dad — My opportunity here is one I can never thank you for. I have learned more in three years than I thought was possible. I love you guys, thanks again for everything. Meg, stay out of trouble and experience as much as you can while your here. You may never have an opportunity like this again.

Lucas — it sure has been a long time since the bicycle incident, flee markets, and beeyards. I'm so glad that we got picked to be twins together.

Mom — It has turned out for the best and I am now glad you made me go to boarding school. Thank you so much for everything, I love you!

Dad — You have no idea how grateful I am for all the talks we have had. It made everything so much easier to know that you would always understand. I don't even mind "social worker talk" anymore — I love you!

Hillary — You've made the four years since then so much better for me. I will miss seeing your pretty little face every morning. These two girls . . .

Chloe — I loved all the talks and it was fun going crazy everyday together. You are wonderful. I am going to miss you so much!

Jen — Espresso love, Samples, love of my life, the angel opens her eyes, Heeey baby lets keep in touch, Crazy love, Frank in my mind, run baby . . . run baby . . . run baby . . . run, I'm leaving on a jet plane, remember to wear flowers in your hair, working overtime, I'm still waiting for Tom to come and mend it — I love you!!!

Cindy — I couldn't have been handy without you. I'm so glad that through everything we have remained friends.

Meghan — I knocked all of your friends bottles over and then you spat up blood but its a good memory. You made the years fun. I will miss you!

Amber — "Please don't go . . .", four years since the bobs and six thirty breakfast. Oh and I never told anyone the secret.

Shon — Since the piece of rubber from my shoe to ? I would have never thought it could be like this. Thank you for making it all good.

Molley. M, Kate. G, Keliy, Sarah, Amanda. S, Anna's, Dave. B, Ian. P, Jess. T, Kate. H, Ethan. C, and all the others I missed — Thanks for all the good times. I'm going to miss you.

mom and dad: I've now spent 18 years dreaming my dreams with you, you've helped many come true. The time has come, I've set my sights and aimed my goals. For my next achievement I must go alone, but, I'll always come back home. I've only partly left. I love you more . . .

Heather: Without any say we became sisters, without any one telling us to we've become friends. They've said you learn by loving, and its taken me this long to begin learning. You're the best.

Grandma and Grandpa: We've spent uncountable hours together. Thank you for always being there and for taking care of me. There is no other way to say it, I love you.

Jason: We have new challenges ahead of us. Seperate roads to take. But we'll keep them connected rather than just break. We've gotten through 4 years of roads. We can handle 100 more.

Hannah: "she became for me an island of light, fun, wisdom where I could run with my discoveries and torments and hopes at any time of day and find welcome" you're the most loyal friend I've ever known, I hope you never change anything. "to dream of the person you'd like to be is to waste the person you are." don't waste a thing.

Mr. Davis: a voice of wisdom that whispered to me along the way, thank you.

Chris: We've found something of value, that's more than I'd ever dreamt, we have a sort of divinity, together we have kept. "you're in my heart, you're in my soul. You'll be my breathe should I grow old. you are my lover. you're my best friend. you're in my soul." Everything else, we've already said. I love you. Jen, Chloe, Greg, Mark, Bonnie, Lucas, Cindy, and everyone else that's gotten me through the past four years: friendships are like treasures, the time comes when they're supposed to be buried but a true pirate doesn't lose his treasures. First I'd like to start by thanking all my family and everyone at Gould who has help me get where I am today. Alistair — You've been my boy since our first year here. I owe you a lot. Stay true to 316 and your eagle brothers. Rioch — Don't know how or when we started becoming friends but I'm glad we did. Keep pimpin' and I'm not a D-E-E-K. Smioth — Alright Cookie Monster you got a lot going for ya'. Stay true to 316 and to yourself. Keep on being a bad boy. "C is for Cookie, that's good enough for Rarry." Take good care of Rarry and keep him happy. 316 — No one could make me laugh like you guys I'll never look at life the same. Thanks for making it a blast. Lobstering w/Rarry. Katie — "Hey Goose ya big stud, take me to bed or lose me forever." "Show me the way home baby." What is there to say? You were my best friend with benefits. You are the only girl who has ever loved me for who I am. You hold a big piece of my heart and I'll never forget you. I will come back and we will make your dreams come true. Never forget me and take good care of Grover. To the Bad Boys (S.F., G.R., E.R., C.S., M.H., Biss, Saw) — Thanks for everything fellas. I don't think I've been mooned, bulldogged, or had my nipples pinched so many times in 3 yrs. Chip — "Why do I have to be Mr. Pink?" It's been a good 3 yrs. my man, I don't know what G.A. drama or Channel 4 would have done without ya. Remember our deal — if you become famous, I'm your man and vise versa. Anna F. — If ya got a booger pick it. I'll never forget ya girl, you're one in a million, don't ever change. Lucas — I've know you ever since you and Kate G. would plot to kill me in Spanish. I'm glad we became friends. You are the man, and you always will be in my book. Stick with the art thang. Hannah — You've been there for me through it all. Thanks for always trying to find me that "special someone", I know I'm hard to shop for, keep in touch and don't lose your calculator. Shelly — What do I say to my "not-quite-girlfriend?" I've been in love with ya ever since sophomore year. Stay crazy and remember the crane kick. When in doubt — sweep the leg. Alford — Be proud in the thespian that you have made me. Stay true to the Greek Democracy. When in doubt — vote on it. Thanks. Eagles — Stay true for life. Don't lose that thing. Nate D. — Not a word. Ms. Whalen — Thanks for being there for me. Who is going to sing to you now? Well, I got to keep it short and sweet so sorry about everyone I forgot. Never forget me Gould, I know I'll never forget you.

Adam Liscomb

No more matches.

I'd like to personally thank all the teachers who have put up with me over the last four years. Sorry for disrupting your classes. "Choose your next witticism carefully, Mr. Bond. It may be your last." — Goldfinger
 Mr. McGuire — Out of all the teachers I have met in my life you have probably taught me the greatest lesson. How to be a good person.

Mr. Newell — You are the one who kicked my butt into gear. To this day I have never been late for anything.

Mr. Nelson — One question. How do you make such good food out of the same stuff we eat in the dining hall? Are you sure you want to be a music teacher? Thank you very much for helping me out and believing in me.

Oh God, I know I'm gonna forget people here. Sorry in advance.

To all Eagles — Don't worry. The can't keep us down. Eagles always rise to the occasion.

Anna French — I don't know what you are gonna do without me. And vise versa. Things will ameliorate. I know this because I'm omniscient.

Morales — If I don't see you starting for the RED SOX someday, there will be trouble.

Rich — "Get on the scene!" — James Brown

Cardello — Thanks for checking in on Thursdays. Thanks for being there. Say hi to Bill for me.

Bermuda — Sorry for making fun of your little speck of a country. Take it easy.

Riss and Ethel — Have fun in Jazz Band

Wacky J. — You will be rich. You better be. Because if you aren't, you'll go broke.

Thea — I'll miss your jokes, laughs, and personality.

Jen — I'm 120, no 400. And you know it.

Mark — Don't forget our building plans for Alumni Field.

Dave — You know I'm the man and your not. Just kidding, you are one of the few actors I look up to. Don't forget our promise. I'm looking for you in the future. We will be big . . . real big.

Lanny — You have always been somebody I can trust. You have helped me through so many problems. You are the Man. One day I'll be taller than you Maggie, We've had so many times together these two years. So much laughter, joking, and even tears. I know that you will do well next year. I'll miss you cutie. Love ya.

Shelley, my little sister, my vacation buddy, my rug rat partner, my good friend. You are so many different special things to me. I will miss you a lot, but I know that I will never have to say good-bye to you. I love ya babe.

Annie, What do college in Boston, business management, you, and I have in common? Useless Facts of the 10th Year. It will happen. Thank you for being there for me. For putting up with 1:00 am phone calls to listen to me bitch. You've helped me keep my head about his place. I'll see you in NYC soon enough. I love you so much. Toni, Let's see, how did it start again? Tennis partners. That's it. I sure as hell can't list the fun times that we've had. It would take forever! So many great times with Dace, Scull, Gam, Donnan, Storm, The boys from the Yellow Cottage, etc . . . It will never end. Love ya hon. Allen, I don't even know where to start with you. You are so close to me and you mean so much to me. I missed you so much this year even though we had e-mail. I am so proud of you for sticking with your dream and carrying it out. There is too much to say to you. The only thing that I ask of you is that you remember the love that I have for you. I know you'll go far. I love you. Anna M., My chorus partner. (pinch) Luv you!

Jan L., Ecology is the best class. Not quite. We've had 2 great years together. They were filled with fun and laughter. You are a great person. Good luck. Love ya.

Jeremy, I'll miss the spins! Take care.

Amber, I still remember my first meal at Suds. Crazy things have happened since then. Trips to Kennebunk to pick up the princess, Cascades forever, and so much more. Bye love.

Jill and Nora, What the hell am I doing???

Mom and Dad, You have given me so much. Just by getting me off of the Cape. Thank you so much for supporting my decision and making it possible for me to come here. Yes it was rough sometimes but it turned out just fine. I love you both so much. Thank you. Dylan, Well the time is finally here. I didn't think that I could wait for it, but I know that now I could have. I know that you will have good luck no matter what you do. Keep in touch. Love ya. Nate and Chaz, too many free-dots together. We had a lot of fun though. Good luck boys. Nate, we will surf together sometime. Love you guys. To all of my other friends, you know who you are, and I haven't forgotten you. I wish you all good luck, and I love you. Remember to smile. It really helps.

I've become one of those four-year seniors that I saw my freshmen year that had a million different stories about their years at Gould. The change in me has been tremendous: I came, I saw, I conquered. I've made so many different friends through the years; many of whom got out of this place before I did. I'd like to thank them. Here are a few reminders of who I was and some special advice from Anji. I think these quotes say it better than I could myself. (Plus it is not exclusive, whereas I might leave someone out; friends past and present, teachers and my family.) "Good order is the foundation of all good things." — Burke (me or what?) "There is a homely adage which runs 'Speak softly and carry a big stick; you will go far.'" — Theodore Roosevelt
"People ask for you criticism, but they only want praise." — Maugham
You cannot fight against the future. Time is on our side."

— Gladstone

"Life is one long process of getting tired." — Samuel Butler

"I'm not arguing with you — I'm telling you." — Whistler

"Die Logik muss fuer sich selber sorgen." (Logic must take care of itself) — Wittgenstein

A special reminder to those who don't think I talk enough or that I am just unbelievably quiet: "Silence is more musical than any song." — Christina Rossetti

"When the first baby laughed for the first time, the laugh broke into a thousand pieces and they all went skipping about, and that was the beginning of fairies." — J.M. Barrie (Peter Pan)

"This calls for the handyman's secret weapon: Duct Tape." — Red Green "It has, I believe, been often remarked, that a hen is only an egg's way of making another egg." — Samuel Butler

"Childhood is not from birth to a certain age and at a certain age. The child is grown, and puts away childish things, Childhood is the kingdom where nobody dies. Nobody that matters, that is." — Middleton

To my parents I want to extend all my thanks and love. For always being there when I needed you even if I wasn't always willing to admit my weakness. To all my friends here at Gould thank you for three interesting, stressful and fun years. Hey Crockett It's time to get smart and realize the error of your ways. VOTE DEMOCRATE!!

To Nate, Matt, and Crockett I told you for the last time I am not playing basketball. To all those of you who are now Seniors. Enjoy the year because it flies by faster than you think. Mrs. Johnson, thank you for being my mother away from home. They say life is 10% what you are given and the other 90% is what you make of it. I guess I will find out what I can do about that 90% in the next few years. I guess I should say good bye now but I hope to return soon so I think I will say see you later instead.

Mom & Dad — Thanks for not shipping me back to Telstar! You have always had a confidence in me to succeed, and I've made it this far! I know that I don't tell you very often how much I love you. Just wanted to say that I love you both very much.

Sara — I did it!!! Can you believe it?? I know we don't always get along, but if we did then we wouldn't be sisters. You are the best!!!

Maybe that's just because you are the only sister I have.

El jefe — You have always helped me through the hard times! Thanks!!

Dr. O — I will always be your computer buddy!

Mr. Taylor — "An idealist is a person who helps other people to be properous" — Henry Ford, 1919 You have always helped me or been willing to no matter the situation. Thanks!

Anna Mosca — We have been through a lot together (Meatloaf, Roger, IGA parking lot, my house Feb. 1995, and many other experiences)!! I will never forget you. One more thing . . . Try not to get the car taken away . . . again!!

Amanda Madore — We also have been through a lot together, usually with Anna. In any case you have always been a great friend!! You have always been there if I need someone to talk to. Thanks!! Sam Decker — You didn't write anything to me in your yearbook, so this is all you get. One more thing . . . I wish you the best of luck with everything you do in the future.

Brian Burgess — I'm finally graduating! I will never forget all the times we spent together!!

Cathy — You wanted me to say something to you, so here I said something. Just kidding! Have fun next year and try to graduate on time. All my friends at Telstar — We finally made it! I miss you all very much and just because I came to Gould doesn't mean I don't think about all the good times we've had. Don't forget me and I will never forget you!

GEHRING

This year, our dorm heads of Gehring were Ms. Morrison and Ms. Whalen. Our delicious sister proctors were Thea, Vicki, Chloe, Hannah, Anji, and Jen. This year we enjoyed movie nights, blastin' Grease, chillin' out to Milli Vanilli, eating mountains of cheetos, and talking about the high times at the Maine Mall. But best of all was fish night with our new t-shirts. Thanks Mama Gehring-Magnolia, not Claire, and Nora.

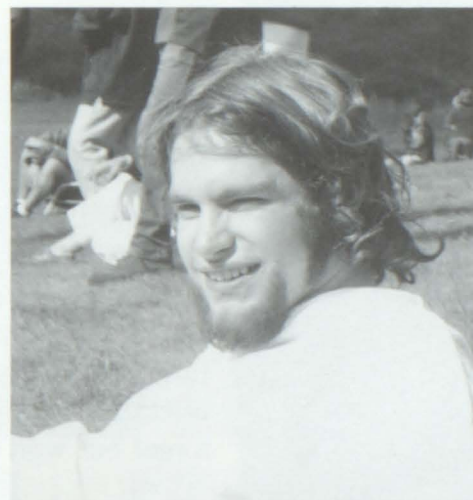

Holden! Holden!

Things went smoothly in the Holden Dormitory throughout the year. When asked why, residents of the dorm will attribute this to an elite foursome of proctors. Those proctors were: Chris Shearer and Mark Harries on the first floor, and Chip Liscombe and Chris Cardello on the second floor. The proctor group did relieve periodic assistance from dorm heads Mr. Burnell, Mr. Hutchins and Mr. "Laser" Beams.

Certain rituals and events in the dorm really gave Holden its character this year. Rituals included the hardcore Senior ER viewing group every Thursday night, and repeated requests to watch Saturday Night Live that were answered constantly with denials. Memorable events included a dorm trip to the Casablanca Theater, painting of the second floor hallway, and overhaul of the downstairs Vortex by the Senior Four Point group.

This is all, of course, just a sampling of what Holden was all about, but it gives a good idea. There were other issues like the acts to maintain a smoke free environment, but that's another story. All and all it was a good year with Holden.

DAVIDSON

Good Ol' Davidson . . . as always quite the year. On a daily, no hourly basis, the Davidson boys kept the three dorm faculty members — See-no evil, Hear-no evil, speak-no evil — on their toes. A new kitchen facility was added to the already homey atmosphere, but the boys the boys were cookin' long before it arrived. Mr. Torrino's apartment is full of hot pots and stereos, and Gutry's is full of good books, Mr. Shepard's dogs didn't burn, and Baywatch prepares the boys to study. Mr. Alford needs to buy Marley his own tennis balls, and the cleaning ladies do not like us all that much . . . But the building has survived (although the hole has gotten bigger), and is ready to house for yet another year, lively young men and memories that we might want to forget but won't.

DAY STUDENTS

Once again there was a profusion of those hardy souls at Gould who make their ways along the highways and byways of the greater Bethel area each day, in order that they might have the distinct pleasure of attending the Academy. They came from near and far, and their fearless proctor leaders Hillary and Jodi, did their best to keep them under control. Of course, they were to be found in their usual haunts of the library and the computer lab, but certain members of the community gave up their positions to stay at the esteemed 4P Motel. Truly, it is the passing of an era, as many famous figures, such as the man who thought he was a fish, and the man who thought he would be governor, head down their separate paths.

BROWN HOUSE

Brown House would like to thank the Johnsons . . . and the cleaning ladies for cleaning the bathroom none of us would touch. Forever remember: Double on a Bine, it's nice having heat and coffee filters, "Harold" "Trish" "Maxine", latenight poker games, teabags, vitamin C, Big Apple, boys on the stairs, "wait is Pat's closed", "stop throwing up on our front lawn!", northern lights, "we're looking for cookies in all the wrong places", always feed the bear in the shower, don't forget to return that stolen can opener, we've all met the children of the corn!

Molley: Remember no more bikinis, and steer clear of embarrassing moments. "Just because I talk to him doesn't mean he's my boyfriend!"

Erin: "Wait, quick stop shuffling!" "Quick pass me the phone — did Cory call? He's such a jerk!" "Don't worry they won't find out."

Erin and Molley: Showers are better than B.O.

Jess F: The bear, dancing men on the bathroom floor

Jess N: "He likes you." Jess's always feed the bear.

Jen: Stay away from her deodorant.

Thea: Your name is forever engraved on our doormat.

Anna F: You always come up with a line

Magnolia and Al: "Does Mrs. Johnson know you're up here?"

FOUR POINT

The seniors found themselves alone on campus during the Four Point and were involved in various projects throughout the community. Groups worked with the Nature Conservancy project and the Audubon Society. From working with Crescent Park Elementary students to putting on a dinner for area senior citizens the seniors got involved with those of all ages. There were also a number of art projects completed in Hanscom Hall, from two Georgia O'keefe murals to making sheetrock look like marble. A group also traveled to Lewiston to the good Shepard food bank to feed the hungry. The main project was the re-decorating of the Vortex, which took a lot more work than originally anticipated. The evenings and free times were filled with trips, movies, interesting plays and waiting around for Indonesians.

HABITAT FOR HUMANITY

This year, the radical sophomore class was divided into 3 groups. The different groups went to 3 exotic locations — Portland, Boston, and Hartford. All of us helped out with the Humanity for Habitat projects in those cities. The awesome possum Portland group also had the opportunity to work at the Pebble Street Resource Center. We worked hard and left with a clearer view of how important volunteer work is. We all learned about team work, patience, and the value of contribution.

Freshmen — Oh, Canada!

The Freshman class boarded a bus for three exciting cities to the north: Ottawa, Montreal, and Toronto. From eating bugs, to seeing penguins, to an M.C. Escher exhibit, to two nights in "jail", to giving flowers to dancers, to workers on strike, to the bus driver, and to getting to know each other much better, it was a good 8 days for everyone!

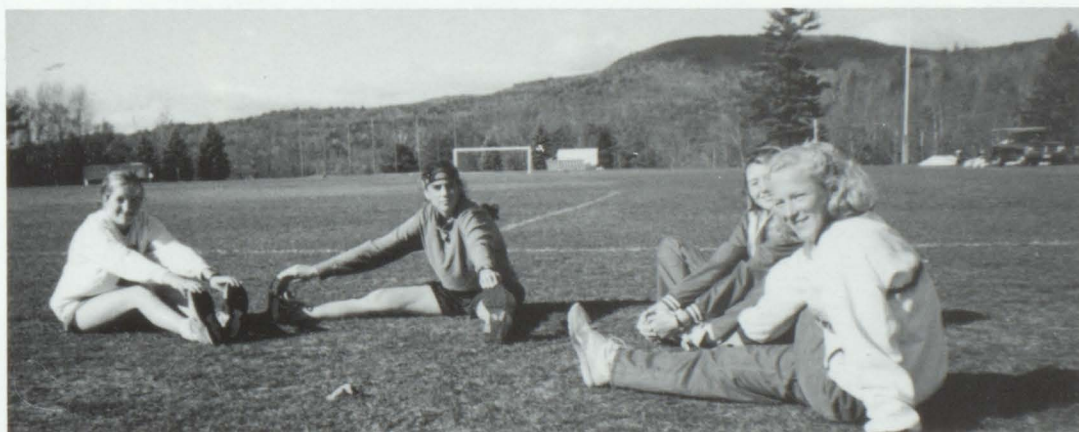

Field Hockey

The field hockey team had a stupendous season. We mangled the competition 8-2-1. Our only losses were tough games that came down to near victories. Surely we will never forget the Hebron game which ended in a triple overtime tie. Our team remained undefeated in the MAISAD league and won the trophy. Scorers this year were Amanda Sysko with seven goals, Hannah Quimby with seven goals, Meredith Mason with nine goals, Marcy Lavallee with nine goals, and Caroline Riss with one goal. Our defense was lead by Shelly McQuinn at center halfback. Thirty three saves were made between our goalies Kate Graham and Amanda Barret. Outstanding plays were made by all.

Cross-Country Running

This season's cross country team ran the dirt off the trails leaving clouds of thick smoke behind. We trained intensively on the hills although it wasn't necessary, we were monsters of the mountains. For a lot of our races our size kept us from qualifying as a team, all together we consisted of only 11 Olympic runners. We ran races on hills, highways, sidewalks, campuses, and septic treatment fields(?). We performed well at the First Annual Gould Mud Run that took place on Parents' Weekend. Rearranging our path specially to get around rivers that had consumed our former course. The starting line was crowded with our own team plus 1 girl and about 4 guys from other schools. We ran a close race all coming in as top ten runners and looking like wet, mud splashed, vicious competitors, practically scaring off our spectators. The season was a good one, as always. We leave it behind now with a lot of pride, memories and dust. Thank you to our fearless coaches, Mr. Davis and Ms. Pooley, the best darn coaches on this side of the Androscogin.

Men's Varsity Soccer

This year's team experienced a steady progression of success on the field as the season went on. It was topped by a berth in the finals of the MAISAD Tournament at the end of the year.

The Coaches: Kurt Simard and Nathan Beams

The Team: Dominic Arsenault, Jackie Chow, Chris Cardello, Justin Browne, J.R. Covington, Shon Flaherty, Nate Deyesso, Dylan Hershman, John Batten, Keper Connell, B.J. Otten, Toji Pearlman, E.J. Cheney, Lanny Popoola, Chuck Mason, Parker Gray, Jeremy Vail (captain) and Chris Shearer (captain).

And of course, the manager: Greg Renna
 Things we'll remember: "Eye Catcha!", "What a bargain!", "Firebirds vs. Beamers", 6:00 a.m. practices, tapioca's??, partner stretches.
 Q: "What do we want to be?" A: "CHAMPIONS"

Men's JV Soccer

Women's Varsity Soccer

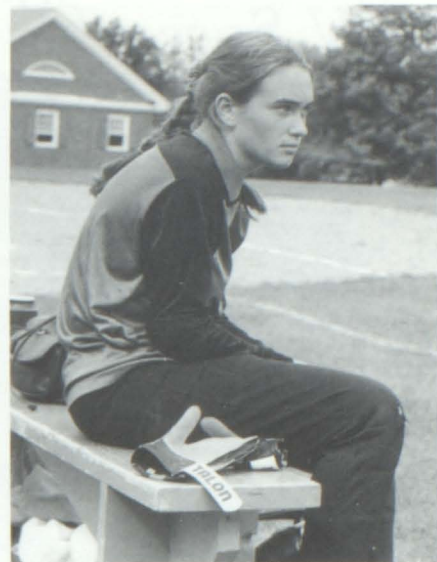

Team building, skill development, and having fun were our major accomplishments of the season.

New students comprised one half of our team — it took some time to learn to work together. We had lots of team dinners and new friendships formed quickly. Our best game of the season was the one against Kents Hill on parents weekend. Everyone on our team played their best. It was a heart breaker to lose but we felt great about how we played. Other highlights of the season were playing "world cup" and watching Erin play "world cup."

Many thanks to the captains — Thea Murphy and Jen Leipold. Goodbye and good luck to the following seniors, we will miss you next year: Thea, Jen, Jess C., Abbey S., Nora L., Anneliese B., and Erin M.

sportsmanship award: Anneliese Bass
most improved player: Becca Fraser
MAISAD all-star: Christine Monzel
captains for '96: Abby Lefebvre and Jill Donovan

Thanks for a good season. — Coach Head

Women's JV Soccer

Women's JV Soccer played 8 games this year. With 2 wins, 3 ties and 3 losses, it was an exceptional season. New students filtered into the team, forming a tightly knit group of strong personalities. The good communication, high spirits, and great friendships will not soon be forgotten. Even if we hadn't won a single game, we still would've come out with more than we had when we first started. The overall skill of the team during games was impressive and there were high levels of intense play and concentration. The team would like to thank a variety of people. First of all Coach Morrison who was behind all our strategies; "Thanks for the confidence in us, Coach!" A very special thank you to all the varsity people we borrowed for the games. To Rich, our beloved team manager, thanks for everything. Another very special thanks to John Provencher for keeping our rolls smelling so sweet. Finally, thanks to each player on the JV team individually, it was a great season and a lot of fun. We did great, guys!

JJV Soccer 1995

The JJV soccer season was a growing season. We laughed, we cried, Kelly got a bloody nose. From our first game (a victory) to our last (a defeat) it was a season to remember. Practices were full of energy: John Kim and Hiro Yanagimoto playing keep away, Seth Stretch staring off into the heavens, Justin Kottler playing twenty-questions, Rashi Kaslow (that's Ka-s-l-o-w), Sam Harrity, Bill Scott's restless enthusiasm, and the rest of the team's unique being. If high-energy was the key word during the week, excitement and enthusiasm characterized every game day. Each athlete brought their own element of individuality to the game. Who could ask for more? From Bill Scott and the painful ride to Brewster (remember Subway Bill?), to Kotler and Stretch shinpaddless at the game, Chris Tartaglia's cool defense, to John Woods' focused determination, it was a team.

To those who will move on to JV or Varsity next year, good luck! To those who remain, get psyched, keep those shorts low, and always play hard.

Varsity Co-ed Golf '95

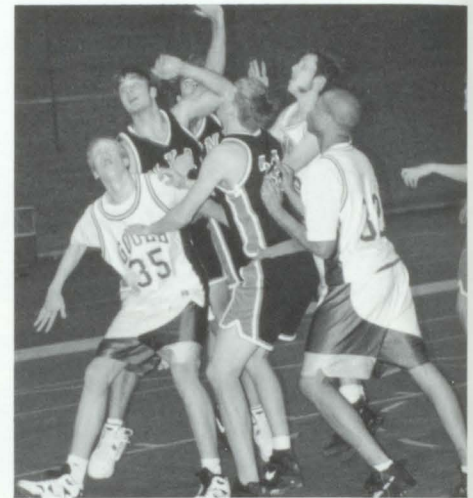

This was a "rebuilding" year for the Golf team. Hopes were high when we learned that we would be under the coaching of the esteemed pro, Scott. He may have been able to hit the ball 270 yards with Amos' lefty driver, but he couldn't bring us to victory over BA. The whole team deserves the Most Improved Award, and hidden talent is lurking. An undefeated season should be expected for next year. Wait . . . "What's that all about?"

Men's Varsity Basketball

Gould Men's Basketball had an outstanding season and stands out among past accomplishments. Gould's winning record and strong show in the tournament were two of the major highlights of the season, but our success was not limited too the mere win-loss statistics. The '96 squad also managed to break down some barriers by beating both Hyde and Buckfeild at their home courts, a feat not accomplished for over 15 years. Gould's strong showing at the tournament included an upset victory over NYA and a two point loss to the 2nd ceded Richmond. Gould's success was due not only to skilled personnel, but also to a strong sense of comradery and teamwork. I think I can speak for everyone on the team when I say that this will be a group of people and a season that we will never forget.

J.V. BOYS

The Boys' J.V. Basketball team finished their season with a record of 7-7. However, this .500 record is no exemplary of the quality of basketball we were playing by season's end. By mid-season we had the core of players we needed to come together as a team — one in which each member understood and fulfilled his role. We finished the season winning 3 of our final 4 games with well-played basketball. Ki-Won Choi was the team's high scorer with 140 points on the season, averaging 10 per game. Brock Pellerin, winner of the Coach's Award, finished with 107 points, averaging 8 points per game. In terms of wins it was an up and down season. However, in terms of learning the game and improvement in the quality of basketball played, we continually climbed.

Women's Basketball

1995-96 was another tough year for the Lady Hoopsters. The goal of the team this year was to improve over last year's record and to improve at an individual level. The first goal was possibly in reach towards the end of the year, but off the court problems set the team back, and the Huskies came up empty.

Individual improvement was easy to spot, however, and was the focus of effort all season long. Becca and Emily started to make three point shots. Teri's range improved to about 15 feet allowing her to be more consistent from the stripe. Susie, who was the rebounding force all year, started to become more of an all-around offensive player. Susie's moves in the paint helped to open up the outside and driving lanes for Jess who scored 100 points this year. The dynamic duo of Jen and Amy provided unbridled energy on defense and some spectacular highlights on offense. Livka was injured in practice early in the season after hitting 6 consecutive free throws and 8 out of 10. She missed most of the season and could have really helped us.

Women's Basketball at Gould is not about winning games. It is about growing together physically, emotionally and mentally; goals that are often harder to attain.

Nordic Skiing

I found myself on him! . . . Tip drag!
 . . . That sounds like a horrible affliction . . . We're not late, you're all early
 . . . Can you pick up a ream of paper?
 . . . I like to hear things, too, guys! . . .
 And I said, what about, breakfast at Tiffany's? . . . I'm gonna explode! . . .
 Will you marry me? . . . Have you been drinking a lot lately? . . . Well, she looks a lot like me; except . . . What?!

The Nordic Ski Jumping Team this year consisted of a strong group of underclassmen Chris Bassett, Shelley MacQuinn, B.J. Otten, Ian Paquette, and E.J. Cheney.

Shelley MacQuinn participated in the first ever International Women's Ski Jumping Competition held in Rumford, ME. She was the only jumper from Maine, and she talked to women from all over Europe, Canada and the US. This experience was a first for Gould and Shelley. Chris Bassett competed this year as a "Ski Miester" taking part in both nordic and alpine events. E.J. Cheney, Ian Paquette, and B.J. Otten were named part of the 1996 All New England Ski Team. All three jumpers posted top ten results in the New England Jumping Championships.

We all look forward to a strong performance from this crew in next year's competitions. "All set??" . . . "Yep!!"

WOMEN'S SKIING

Coach Hutchin's and Ms. Head had the opportunity to work with Gould women's ski team. The group consisted of girls that raced in FIS and USSA sanctioned competitions. They also represented Gould in the NEPSAC ski championships. They all placed in the top ten. They were a fun group, even when they competed against each other. Overall, they had a great team and a great season. Thank you Coach Hutch, Coach Lavallee and Coach Head.

Men's Alpine Skiing

MAISAD Champions and New England Giant Slalom Champions were two titles the male skiers garnered this season. Athletes competed in USSA and FIS level races at Nor Ams, Eastern Cups, and Junior Olympic races throughout the US and Europe. Congratulations to all on a great season. Coach LaValle, Simard, Smith, Gardner.

SNOWBOARDING

This year's Snowboard Team had the strongest showing in its two year history. This team competed in the Green Mountain Series almost every weekend and dominated the snowboard portion of the Maisad races. Ian Bissonnette won every GS race. With competitions in USSA and USASA, they had two freestylers qualify for Nationals in both organizations, Magnolia Niederhauser and Shon Flaherty. They both attended the USASA Nationals at Mount Snow in Vermont. Magnolia came home with a fourth place finish in the Halfpipe for J2 women and Shon a ninth place finish for J1 men in the Halfpipe. Through and through they had a great season. A special thank you goes out to head coach Scott Swett for his hard work and dedication and to Ms. Kulik for making the season a fun and productive one.

This season was the Gould Academy Freestyle Team's best season yet. They competed in most regional competitions and put in a few top finishes. Jessie Odlin and Kevin Gagne each pulled in a winning place. Peter Girard, Dominic Arsenault, Jessie Odlin and Jen Allard competed in three North American competitions and showed to be a strong team. Dominic held the top finish with an 11th place. This year Junior Nationals was at Heavenly Valley in California and the Gould competitors were Jen Allard, Nate Deyesso, Kevin Gagne, Ben Austin, Chris Kitchen and Peter Girard. From there most of the team traveled to Snowbird, Utah where Qualifiers and Nationals were held. Peter placed 24th at Qualifiers and Jen 19th at Nationals.

FREESTYLE

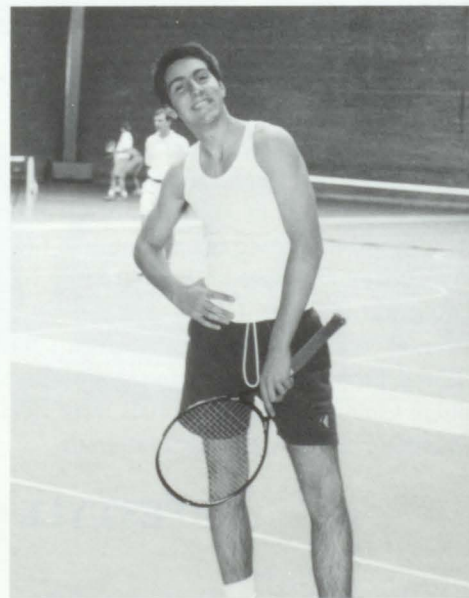

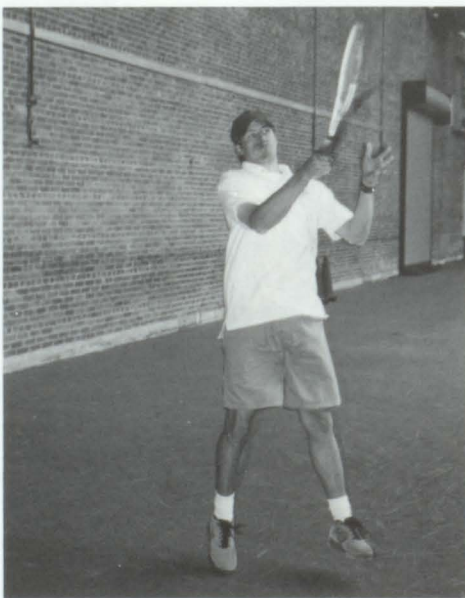

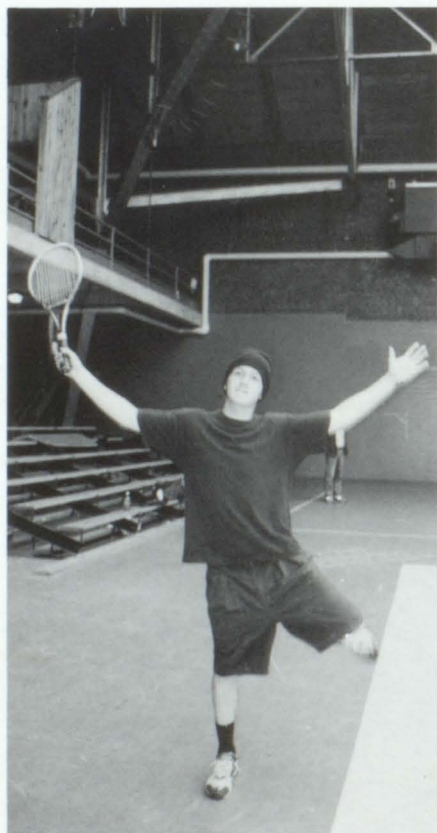

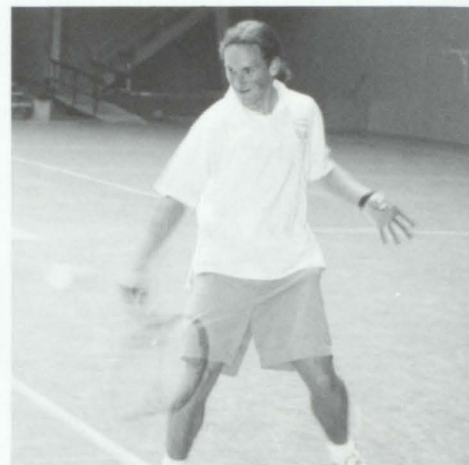

Men's Varsity Tennis

Sponsored by nobody; the men's varsity tennis team adopted a rigorous training diet of cheese cutlets, coke classic, and good fun. On match day this fun loving attitude continued and the Gould team created a positive atmosphere on the court. Teams from around the league complemented Gould players on their fairness and great sense of sportsmanship. One Hebron doubles player, after losing to the Gould team, summarized many opposing players sentiments saying; "I've never made friends on a tennis court before today."

Almost everyone on the team had at least one match in which they played up to a level of tennis they had not reached before. In addition to these personal successes, Gould's doubles teams, Chris Scheerer/Lucas St. Claire and Jake Harity/Peter Girard, defeated all opponents in the MAISAD doubles tournament to meet each other in the finals. Coaches around the league couldn't remember a time when both the first and second doubles teams from the same school played each other in the finals. This feat will surely be remembered in seasons to come.

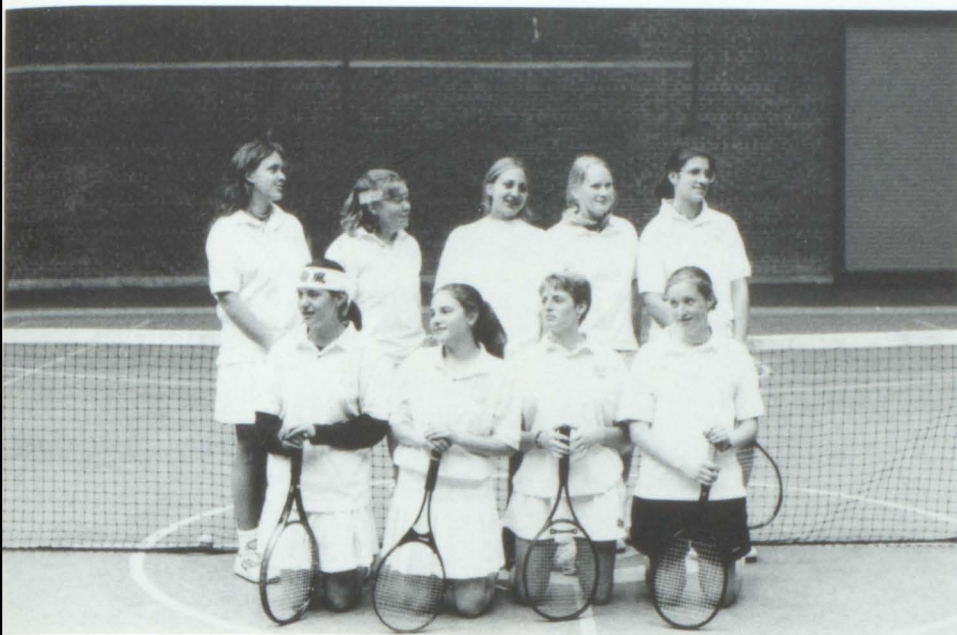

Though none of the graduating players achieved a ranking high enough to be invited to Wimbledon, you can catch up with them at the Monster Truck Extravaganza featuring Big Daddy Don Bodean's truck, the Behemoth.

Coach Janicki would like to thank all the members of the team for helping to make his spring trimester at Gould such a wonderful experience. You'll be remembered.

Women's Tennis

The women's tennis team didn't have a winning season this Spring, but we had a good deal of fun! Practicing with our new ball machine was challenging and offered a great change of pace to practice. Van rides offered ample opportunity for relaxation and enjoyment of music. #1 singles player, Vicky Bell won the sportsmanship award for always playing her best and demonstrating a positive attitude. #2 singles player was Betsey Wilson, and #3 was Jen Curley. Doubles teams included Anji G. and Elin J., Jodi O. and Chloe T., and Abby S. and Jess N. Chloe earned most improved award. Anji and Elin played until the quarter-finals of the doubles tournament, losing to the #1 seed. Although our record wasn't a winning one, we had a great season!

Men's Varsity Lacrosse

HUSKIES DOGGED DETERMINATION PAYS OFF IN '96

Lacrosse sticks were slow to replace snow shovels and canoe paddles this spring as late winter storms and flooding kept the Huskies at bay and off of the lower fields until late April. '96 Sportsmanship Award winner and team Captain, Chris Cardello, led all scorers with 34 points, and he also lead the team to a regular season record of 5-6. Gould went on to place third in the MAISAD tournament, and the boys earned an 8th seed in the competitive Maine Interscholastic Lacrosse League tournament. Although the playoffs resulted in early departures, the Huskies achieved their best record of the decade, and Coach Graham was quoted as saying, "We ended the season, right where we wanted to be." Improving skill and confidence led to offense and defensive balance as the young team progressed throughout the season. Senior leadership was provided by Chuck The Mason, Jeremy Pre Vail, Lanny The Lane Popoola, Northern Boarders Bissonette, Banker Award winner Go Ishii (The Zen Master turned Scorpion), Greg The Rennagade, Ben Hacksaw Hall, Huge E Naguchi, and Jarrod the Croketto, who received the Most Improved player Award of '96. These players set the tone; they played to win; they played to have fun; and they were 3 goals shy of winning three overtime games which were taken by their opponents. As the seniors take their places on the Alumni Team, along with team Manager Oh my Golly Molly Maloney, the future still bodes well for the young pups. Captain elect Junior Erik Rackliffe, who tallied 24 points in '96 will return to lead Dave The Buckeye Herberich, Chris the Kitchen Sink, Drew The Drummer Drummond, Jason The Milkman Hood, Mark The Arrow Attia, Andrew Smitty Smith, Dan The Toad Le Blanc, and Garden City Willy, the outstanding goalie phenom. The foundation has been laid for another great chapter to be written.

Men's JV Lacrosse

The Men's JV team finished the year with a regular 4-4 season record. The team's best wins, against MAISAD opponents Hebron and Kent's Hill placed Gould third in the league. First year player, John Batten pulled in a solid effort in goal, capping his lacrosse career with a season ending shut-out against Gardiner. Nate Fredricks led the team in scoring with 11 goals and is a promising varsity player for the future. Excellent effort was also put in by defensive players Reto M., Rob L., and Dustin R. Cleary and Voigt (who scored his first career goal in the last game) were mainstays in the attack corps.

For the first time in the history of the lacrosse program, all players practiced together. For this reason many players improved dramatically. Kevin "Spartacus" Broderick received the coaches' award for his improvement and commitment to the team.

Women's Varsity Lacrosse

This years women's lacrosse conquered the fields everyday. The defense destroyed all offense, distracting all from entering our zone. Our offense offended all boundaries of speed, agility, and above all, finesse. Led by Coach Gardner and Head we secured the position of fourth in the league. After a dignified performance we did not win, but ended the season well. Two All-Stars were selected from our team — Thea Murphy and Hillary Harrison. The entire team improved vastly, but Lori Young racked in the award for her incredible performances. BetseyK astonished us all both as a goalie and as an extreme cheerleader. Next year's captains are Jesse Odlin and Abby Lefebvre. Good luck next year, Huskies!

Women's JV Lacrosse

This year we had one incredible team. Among the high scorers are Caroline Riss, Megan Flaherty, and Christa Goodman. The never to be forgotten defense players were Sarah Crocker, Christine Polequin, Amanda Barrett, Kate Graham, Megan Keiser, Temma Stout, and Katie Chapman. 1st homes were Jessica Fernandez and Megan Eckfeldt, 2nd homes were Kate Hughes and Megan Ward, 3rd homes were Liv Chase and myself, Genevieve Wood. Of course, there was our goalie, the magnificent Anna French, an idol to goalies everywhere.

Amongst our most glorious triumphs were the "Game at Freeport", and the "Rumpford Exhibition". These were two of the most difficult games in JV Women's Lacrosse history, in which we were most proud of ourselves after we beat them.

The other important events of the lacrosse season? Well, words cannot describe them, you had to be there.

Baseball

This year's squad came, saw and conquered, led by "Big Man" Torino and "Shorty" Dohrmann. There was no team who really provided a challenge as Gould rumbled over all opponents. In the 9 games played, we outscored our opponents 95-4. We committed one error and that was because the nearsighted ump thought Nate's spectacular diving catch was in vain. It wasn't.

Highlights for the season: Ian's all-knuckleball no-hitter, Shawn and Eugene hitting back to back grand slams, and Amos' "Gehring shot". The low points for the season: Ian and BJ, slumping, hit only a home run a piece.

Softball

The softball team had a good learning season. Winning did not come easy, but the team managed to pull together and successfully win two games. The last game of the season against East Gate Christian Academy was outstanding for the team, winning 28-22 in the seventh inning. Excellent plays were made by Amanda Sysco (short, pitcher, and catcher) Andrea Taylor (Short), Lindsey Richardson (first), Marcy LaVallee (third), Becca Fraser (center and first), Meredith Mason (pitcher), Jenny Wheeler (catcher). The first home run of the season was scored by Becca Fraser. All the softball girls did a great job and continually got better. The team had a good first season with a record of 2-6, and should be proud.

JV Baseball

Coach Olsen and Coach Huppe managed to outfit the team with cleats and gloves and Gould's version of the Bad News Bears were off for the season. The flaming shirt of Burgess, the determination of Kelly, Gutry's pitch, the Wantoes, Earl, Early and others made up a team that played out the season that was a lot of fun. And who could forget Min, "Without Min, we couldn't Win!" Thanks Coach Olsen and dedicated fans Carl, Kane, and Mrs. Olsen!

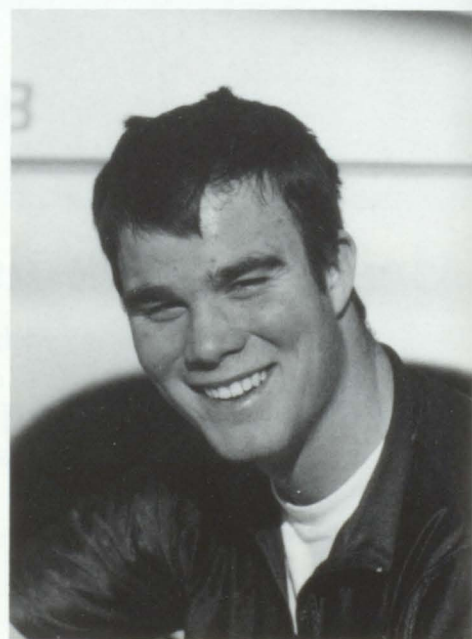

Men's JV Tennis

"The man is a domestic animal which, if treated with firmness and kindness, can be trained to do most things." (Jilly Cooper) Except work detail! Good season, boys!

Cycling!

This year the cycling team exhibited a great amount of endurance, depth, and good sportsmanship. We participated in as many races as we could and top placements were gained by some of our riders. It was a positive season and with many returning cyclists, next year looks even stronger. Good work cyclers!

WINTER CARNIVAL

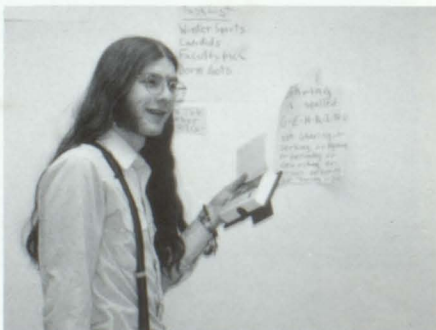

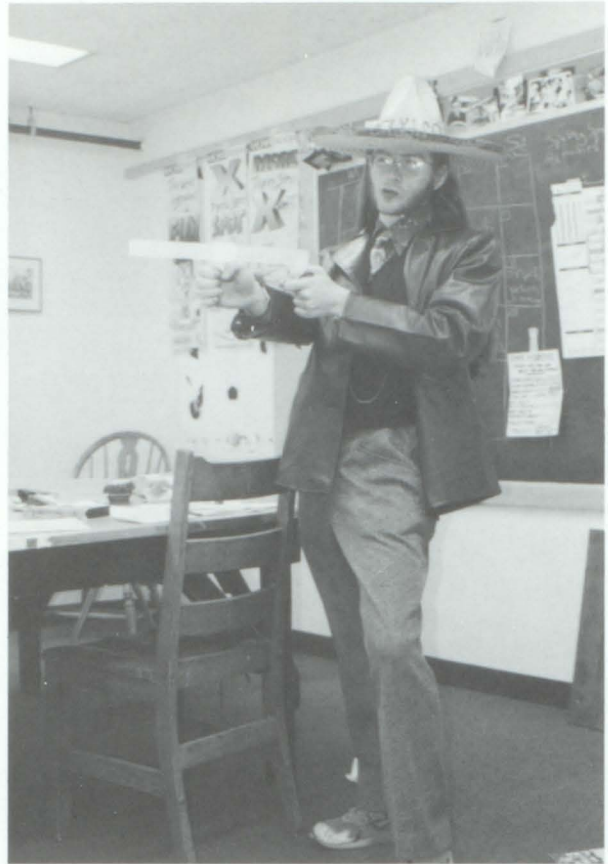

This year's fabulous Winter Carnival began with the traditional Cross-country Ski Race. The Juniors slipped and glided to first place in this event. Upon completion of the race, everyone flocked to the brush pile that was slanted to become a bonfire. The King and Queen were announced, Darby Hickey and Thea Murphy, and they ceremoniously lit the fire. Except that it didn't light. Thereafter, everyone dispersed. On Saturday, due to the snow, the expected basketball was put off until the afternoon. This threw the events of that day into confusion. There was a large showing of support at the game, and the Junior carried away the points for that one, too. Pleasing everyone, the boys came away with a well deserved win over NYA. The Toboggan competition was held that evening, on a beautiful course. The Seniors managed to rally for a victory at this event. A nifty dance was held that evening, but the lip-sync contest was cancelled. The last day, Sunday, came to hold the deciding events. It was a tight race between the Seniors and the Juniors for first place. After an amazing spectacle at the Spink Rink, the Juniors narrowly carried away a win. The Seniors managed to capture the Scavenger Hunt points, however. While the Juniors ended in first with points, the Seniors showed their class unity and certainly beat everyone in their cheering. All in all, a weekend of many new things, and much fun.

Are you in the "ZONE"?

Not many Gould Students are yet the Yearbook continues to get published. Being in "the Zone" is becoming a highly sought after position; this year saw the first Yearbook try-outs and cuts in the history of Gould Academy. Regardless of popularity for afternoon fun, the year's end brought travesty and trials to the staff as the Zone camera ran out of batteries on graduation day (no lithium specials at Preb's) and there was not enough time for a Ms. Whalen laser trip to L.A. to rectify the situation. Thus, a special photo of the heart of the yearbook, Mr. Darby "I used to have long flowing red hair" Hickey could not be procured. However, depicted below is a Darby shot with his favorite instrument of yearbook production, "The Cropper." Darby found comfort and solace in "the Zone" for the past three years and deserves most of the credit for the quality and timeliness of the last three Yearbooks. Who would think that lurking behind platform shoes, polyester, and Izod cardigans hid a yearbook rep in the making? A huge thanks to all staffers who helped with photos, write-ups, cutting down Christmas trees, and getting another good book out on time!

Reachout

Reachout had a very good year. Membership more than doubled, and the energy level was high all year. We began with our fall UNICEFF campaign which went better than ever. In late winter a special Rainforest Auction raised enough money to endow twelve acres of land in Brazil. The spring Walk America fund raisers brought in over two hundred dollars. Reachout continues to be an exciting focal point for student involvement in social action.

Big Sisters/Little Sisters

Through thoughtful pairing of junior and freshman girls, the Big Sister/Little Sister program bridges the gap between home and life at Gould for the incoming freshman. The relationship between sisters begins with the exchange of letters and phonecalls in the summer and is fostered throughout the year on the playing fields, in Gehring and in the classroom. We had plenty of fun this year as many friendships were developed. Who will ever forget the lipsynch and Mr. Graham dancing in the kitchen?

Ski Patrol

In the primary survey, our ABC's were sound. The secondary put us at V on the AVPU scale, SCTM was not PCC, eyes were PERRL, there was no rebound pain in the LRQ, and there was AMPLE history in the makings. We switched from the old red and blue to startling pink and black. The only TCP's missed were when Van #1 was not available. Carry on WEC/OEC holders of the NSP!

Rug Rats

The RugRat Program enjoyed another year of success. Under new management, the Gould instructors responded very well to the various requests made by Mr. Beams, Ms. Whalen and Ms. Stowell. There were eighty-three "RugRats" from Crescent Park School, the largest group ever, and the skill level ranged from the "never-ers" to the advanced "diamond dogs". Special recognition should be given to all twenty-six RugRat Instructors. This year's Eric Bennett Award was presented to Shelley MacQuinn, for her effort with the variety of children she taught. With many instructors returning, the RugRat will continue to be successful for years to come.

Blue Key

The Blue Key crew included 70 student volunteers in 1995-96. All together these students helped the Admissions Office by giving somewhere between 300-375 campus tours, hosting numerous prospective students during class visits and overnights, and stuffing envelopes for mailings. This group of students was particularly wonderful at making families feel welcome and comfortable at Gould. Numerous times they were commended for being friendly, knowledgeable and helpful. Seniors Dave Bennett, Chip Liscombe and Anjie Grajewski were especially generous with their time, each giving over a dozen tours during the year. Underclassmen Desiree Plata and B.J. Otten, however, held the record for most tours given for the year with 15 each. The Admissions Office thanks all the student volunteers for their help this year, and hopes to see even more students come forward next year to help introduce Gould to new families.

Fifty-four enthusiastic volunteers formed a dedicated 1995-96 Gold Key organization. Their first assignment started early on a chilly morning when they gathered to set-up and hang signs for Alumni Weekend. Many hands soon turned the alumni tent into a festive gathering place on the lawn of the Park Mason Alumni House. Their work continued throughout the weekend as they took tickets, waited on tables at alumni meals, steered alumni in the right direction, set-up and torn down podiums, and generally filled in wherever they were needed.

A few weeks later Gold Key were again hard at work during the Parent's Auction, serving meals, clearing tables, modeling items and running for the live auction.

When winter floods and high winds kept alumni volunteers from attending the Bethel phonathon in November, Gold Key members came to the rescue and called for the Annual Fund, raising pledges and gathering news from the Gould family.

They gathered again in December for pizza and a holiday card writing session to send their thanks to several hundred other Gould volunteers.

Gold Key '95/'96 was a group of incredible students! Their enthusiasm and willingness to serve was exemplary. Thank you ALL for your great work.

Gold Key

The proctor group worked hard to create dorm functions such as the testosterone voyage to the Casablanca, flounder shirt adventures in Bingham, Friday night movie watching in Gehring, and teaching the young lads of Davidson how to properly vent frustrations when the rigors of academics become overwhelming. The energy out into this school form orientation trips to The End is appreciated. Good luck, you are now qualified to be R.A.'s at your college.

Proctor Group

The Class Reps

The class rep group is a virtually undetected bunch who put in their time mostly before and after school wide events. This year they worked particularly hard on The Snowball, Winter Carnival, and The End. They are main energizers behind weekend planning ideas and this year the 9th grade representatives were critical to planning the Freshman 4 Point. Good work, Reps, this is your public "thank-you."

Woodworking

The crew in woodworking this Spring included: Chris Tartaglia, Henry Fashold, Chris McKnight, Keper Connell, John Strazza, Caleb Davis, A. Parker, Ramon Loya, and Micum MacIntyre. The usual array of Shaker Stools sprung from the benchtop as the new members learned to use handtools. Several excellent pieces were executed in hardwood this time, but the most unusual was Caleb's Footstool. This challenge he accepted was to make a stool unlike anything that he had ever seen before. It has no fasteners, virtually no metal, and it takes down into two separate pieces without tools!

Alliance Francaise

To the North to Quebec we traveled again; blizzards and border crossings were memorable events as well as the cafes, sight seeing, and the pronunciation of some of our French!

Polar Bears 1996

The polar bears started this year on April 23rd with our first refreshing dip in Songo Pond. The club filled the bus with 39 stout hearty students and faculty of which 23 made it to the last day. We braved the extremely cold waters of Bog Brook, where head Polar Bear Pete Rackliffe called for the dreaded double dip, to being turned back by the turbulent falls of Deep Hole. Following deep rooted tradition, the Bears ended the season on a sunny May morning basking in the warmer waters of Songo Pond and enjoying the year end breakfast cookout.

National Honors Society

This year the NHS went through a metamorphosis, so to speak. After becoming tired of the constant verbal assaults by non-society members about claiming to be something we weren't, we decided to take a stand, and figure out exactly what wanted to be, and how well we were being that. After many long discussions, several ideas were promoted, which we felt would improve our image and make contributions to the community, while satiating our consciences. The first of these was to form a study help group, which consisted of rotating members, meeting in the writing lab during evening study hall four nights a week. This received an enthusiastic response from everyone. The second item we accomplished was to meet every Tuesday evening to discuss 'topics of importance'. This have turned out to be very intriguing and stimulating, not to mention educational and enjoyable. All in all, the NHS made great strides this year in every arena, and will continue to do so in the coming year, with a tremendous group of new additions and energy.

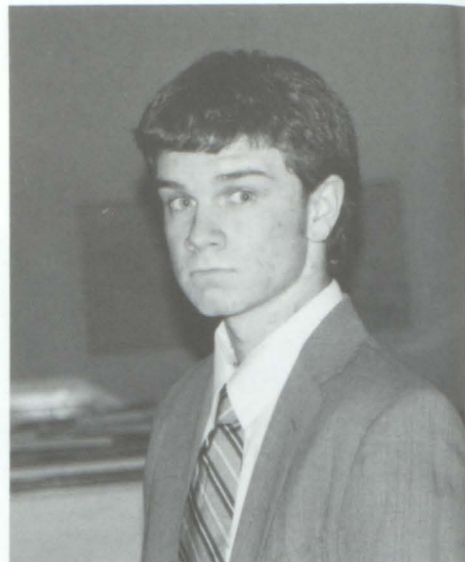

International Students

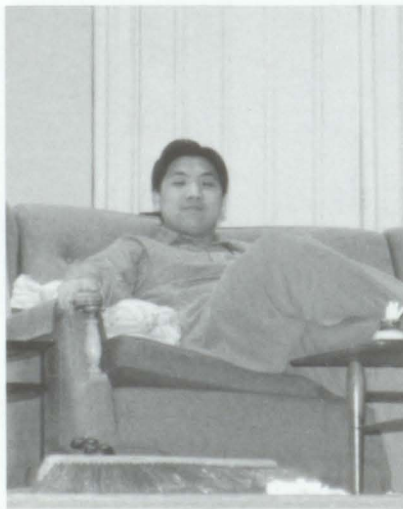

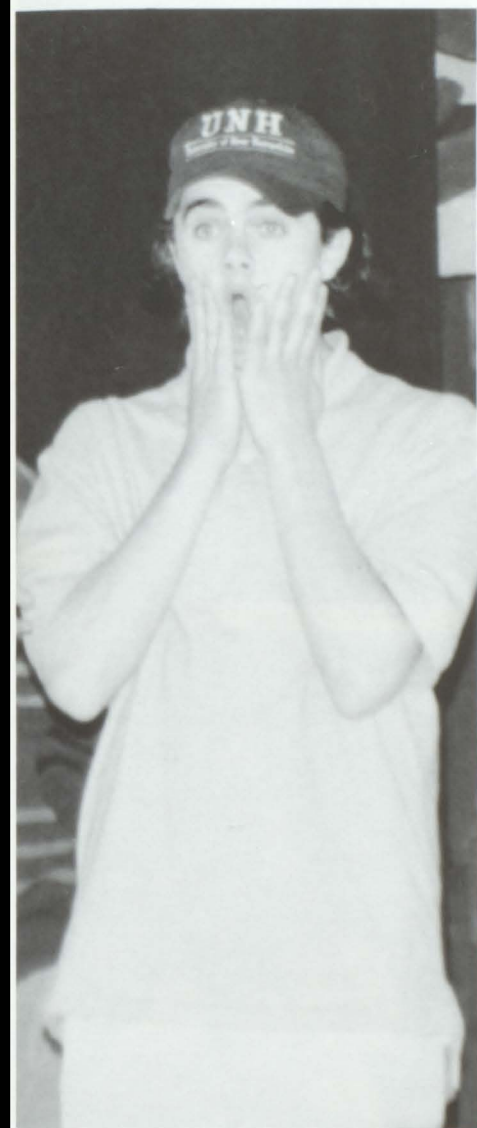

This year's international students travelled for as long as 2 days to 2 hours to reach Gould. Countries represented include Bermuda, Canada, Hong Kong, Indonesia, Germany, Japan, Korea, Mexico, Nigeria, Saudi Arabia, Slovakia, Spain and Sweden. This year was full of many triumphs and fun — messy roommates, homesickness, left out in the cold at the comp. center (WHAT did you say?), 2 knee surgeries, a broken thumb, unreliable alarm clocks (were you in assembly this morning?), contact lenses, TOEFL tests and English!, McDonalds cheeseburgers and some great food thanks to Mrs. Clough.

DRAMA

Having a developed drama program this year was no myth. Renowned actors like Mike Rose, Nate "Than" T., Jen "Clemintine" Jacques, Meg Ward, Matt Walker and others really left their fingerprints on the stage. The excellent productions were "The Miner's Daughter", "The Ledge", "The Odd Couple", and "Lucky Stiff." Access to the stage lights of Bingham was not unilateral; applications were required of the actors and production staff. Senior members of the crew — Chip, Luke, Annaliese, Bonnie and Dave — are off to bright lights and big cities and will be missed. Good work on another year!

Mr. Burnell's Advisee Group

Burnell advisees were led this year by juniors Wood and Holzhauser and sophomores Ward, Fasoldt, and Davis did regular turns at dish duty and had functions that included a pizza party, an ice cream gathering and a bar-b-que. All members are expected to return, have a nice summer!

Caleb Davis, Charles Fasoldt, Megan Flaherty, Peter Holzhauser, Rob Liscombe, Caroline Riss, Maghen Ward, Genevieve Wood

Mr. Taylor's Advisees

This year was spent waiting eagerly for the next advisee function which we knew would include throwing apples from sticks, watching three-legged pigs, or studying Maine culture at 6 AM in north Waterford. What is there to say?

Chris Bassett, Chris Bill, Amos Hausman-Rogers, Merideth Mason, Sung-Woo Park, Tarek Rached, Maggie Shaner, Matt Walker.

Mr. Shepard's Advisees

A. Bluestein, J. Early, M. Garlick, J. Hood, H. Quirk, S. Roy, C. Stewart, A. Vinson, J. Wharton

There are two thoughts I would like to leave my advisee group with. The first is that everyone needs to find a refuge. A place where they can go and be alone. A place to think about who they are and who they want to become. Because tomorrow you will not be the same person you are today whether you take the time to cultivate or allow yourself to grow like a weed. For me that place is Lieutenant's Island. It's a place where I can walk in the shallow bayside waters and watch the sun go down. It is a place to feel tiny marine life struggling to survive until the tide returns again. It is a place where a couple of old faded beach houses hug the dunes and a winding dirt road with a small wooden bridge help maintain its isolation. It is a place that I can be alone. you need to find that place.

The second thought is that when you go there, you have to come back. Your refuge is like the peak of a mountain. When you get there you should be able to see in many different directions. But, in order to get to the next highest peak you have to first come down from the one on which you presently stand. Find peace and contentment in the struggle to be great.

Mr. Shepard

Madame Ouwinga's Advisees

Elegant Vicky, giggling Jen, determined Molley, cool Shon, procrastinating Peter, and irrepressible Dylan; Good luck next year! Funny Mike and up-beat Shelley: ayez de bonnes vacances! To all of you: thanks for a never-boring year! Au revoir — Madame

Dr. Ouwinga's Advisees

There was a lot of activity in the Ozone this year. Thea Murphy, Dave Herberich, Micum MacIntyre and Zach Spinney were new arrivals. Amber MacKenzie, Jess Fernandez, Caitlin Bas and Sung Mo Yang welcomed the new group. We regret that Zach had to leave before the end of the year. Thea, Amber and Sung Mo will graduate and go onto fantastic futures. Jessica, Dave and Micum will be Seniors next year. Caitlin will be a Junior.

Caitlin Bass, Jess Fernandez, Dave Herberich, Micum MacIntyre, Amber MacKenzie, Thea Murphy, Sung Mo Yang.

My advisee group was led by an exceptionally fascinating four year senior, Chip Liscombe. He took care of every minute detail. Justin Browne did a superb job putting together a final function. We went bowling. Nobody bowled very well, but Katie Chapman provided us with an excellent dining suggestion. We ate at Bonanza. The food wasn't too good, but at least there was lots of it. Ben Stockwell swore that the ghost of Michael Landon had possessed his steak. As you can tell from the picture, Nate Fredericks was constantly late for everything. Jon Woods and Teri Chadbourne were constantly talking through every assembly. Sarah Paul, was our lone new student, and we feel she did a good job fitting in. The year was so full of good fun. We even enjoyed dish duty to a certain extent. Chip did a fantastic job and scored us some nice seats in the back row for assembly. Although, the last month brought an intruder to Chip's seat, but he was promptly scared away. I will miss Chip and the other two seniors immensely, and I wish them good luck.

Advisee Group of Mr. Davis

Annaliese Bass, Ethan Covey, Bonnie Crocker, Annajane French, Mark Harries, Jessica Neves, Alistair Parker, Chris Shearer

The real reason for Mrs. Pooley's new 2-year student-per-advisor-rule: The Davis group's genetic testing requirements were setting standards. Mac Daddy makes a clean sweep this year with eight amazing Seniors: one valedictorian, a real artist, half the top ten, two class reps, a South African expeditionist, two head proctors, great looking women, and singing talent. The only question is — why did a fearless group pick him as their fearless (if somewhat frazzled) advisor? Although the answer alludes Mac Daddy himself, it is clear to the eight who have survived the Davis experience. You can relax old man, we made it. Thank you.

Mrs. Owen's Advisee Group

This year our advisee group consisted of all seniors. Six girls and one Eric Hill. We all enjoyed early trips to the Java house, and stuffing ourselves at tuts. Nights at the lake house made us feel removed from Gould and allowed us all to get to know each other. We will never forget Eric's crazy love of dish duty.

Nora Lonborg, Abbey Stretch, Cory Balch, Jenn Curley, Eric Hill, Claire Brassill, Andrea Taylor

Mr. Ford's Advisee Group

Ben Austin, Federico Carcedo, Peter Girard, Darby Hickey, David Huljack, Chris McKnight, Corey Roderick, Oliver Sternicki

Yet another year has passed, with yet another group of men comprising the Ford Advisee Group. Once again a salmagundi of personalities, preferences, and philosophies fleshed out the group. From Federico telling Darby that he would go nowhere with long hair, to Chris and Oliver arguing over the window spot, we had times of conflict. From modern warfare in the dishroom, to watching assemblies by members of the group, we had amusement. From fine dining at Maurice's to pie and movies, we had bonding. All in all, a splendid year, and the farewell point for many.

Our advisee group and a wonderful time this year. The Rackliffe advisee experience was not limited to the big functions, such as our attendance to the at the running of the bulls in Pamplona and the double century bicycle ride to raise money for multiple sclerosis research. Little events such as the trip to the authentic cock fight in Louisiana, have served as grave reminders that life as a prize fighter can be enjoyable until a rival chicken pecks your eyes out. The most memorable and rewarding experience was the time we found an injured calf on the side of the road during a trash clean-up project. We named him Selvester and nursed him back to health. Although Selvester was tragically killed due to a case of mistaken identity in Pamplona, his legacy will continue in the form of the Selvester Fund (a non-profit organization against the inhumane treatment of bulls in bull fights). I think that I can speak for the rest of the advisee group when I say we'll never forget you Selvester.

Mrs. Pooley's Advisee Group

Our group has been known as a Motley Crew, but now this year we have all become friends. With all of our advisee functions, such as coffee, donut days and advisee dinners at Mrs. Pooley's house, or when Cathy Morgan's mom makes us dinner at her house. Our group consists of Mike Rose — the amazing actor and Ramon Loya who was usually late to assembly but has become punctual. Jessie Odlin and Kate Graham have been the inseparable best friends of the group who Mrs. Pooley is constantly telling to be quiet at assembly. Erin McCormick who is graduating and we will look forward to seeing her at "Cisco and Ponchos". Chloe Tartaglia has turned out to be the sweetest person we have ever known. Elin Johnson is quiet at assembly but eventually lets go at advisee dinners. Sarah Crocker is the only Freshman but is treated like the little sister of the group. And then there is Cathy Morgan/Baby Bear. She lives for Polar Bear dips and awaits her Senior gift of being a nine year bear from Mr. Rackliffe.

Sarah C., Kate G., Elin J., Ramon L., Erin M., Cathy M., Jessie O., Mike R., Chloe T.

The Dohrman advisee group was graced with the presence of four year senior Lanny Popoola. He was the only one who ever made it on time for assembly. He was the most responsible person in the group. Jackie Chow finally got to see what Bingham auditorium looked like at 7:45. Tate Lacey who was quoted saying "I love doing a window at dishes." Greg Renna who loved all advisee functions we had. We had Tibs who was just Tibs. One year advisee, Shawn Morales, who finally found out which was the best advisee group at Gould. Sam ever so quiet at assembly. Chuck who was the muscle of the group. With a lot of seniors graduating, Mr. Dohrman is going to have to recruit advisees to match up to the legacy Lanny is leaving behind. Mr. Dohrman is going to miss Lanny immensely. He was the heart and soul of the group. He held the group together. All the underclassmen looked up to the kid. Tears are going to drop when he leaves.

Mr. Dohrman's Advisees

Ms. Head's Advisee Group

This year Ms. Head's advisee group was very special. Five of us are leaving, and three who have been with Ms. Head for four years. Hillary Harrison, Erik Renna, Hannah Quimby, Jodi Odlin, and Rich Littlefield are saying goodbye to their beautiful loving advisor Lauren Head. Remaining advisees are Anna Marancik, Parker Gray, and Lauren Withers. These are the special memories Hillary, Erik, and Hannah have to share: Ms. Head has taken a lot of abuse over the past few years. Hillary pulled a chair out from under her breaking her tailbone, Hannah checked her in the head with her lacrosse stick, and Erik hit Tonka with his bike. She puts up with us for all this time and pain and we want to say thanks! Be sure to tell your uncle Dick we said goodbye! Good luck Anna, Parker, and Lauren. Bye Bob and Tonka. pw.

Parker Gray, Hillary Harrison, Rich Littlefield, Anna Marancik, Jodi Odlin, Hannah Quimby, Erik Renna, Lauren Withers

Mr. Hutchin's Advisee Group

There's a lot to say about this group, but at the risk of leaving out some great moments I'll skip to the greatest. We remain bowling champions over the Alfred advisee group! For the boys who have a few more years I expect you to keep this record.

EJ Cheney, Drew Drummond, Brendan Feitelberg, Anji Grajewski, Dan LeBlanc, Jason McKenzie, Yuji Noguchi, Seth Stretch, Chas Ziegler

The Baker's Advisee Group

Ms. Stowell's Advisees

Although the numbers in Ms. Stowell's advisee group waxed and waned like the moon this year, we finished up with six hearty souls including Christa "Krispie Treat" Goodman, Hiro "When does the bus go to Boston?" Horiuchi, Betsey "I am not a morning person!" Wilson, Jenny "Walk to school" Wheeler, Kate "I'm taking a weekend" Hughes, and Chris "Lets go to Tuts" Poliquin. High points of the early part of the year featured gourmet meals by former advisee Ryan Macomber and entertainment by Ms. Stowell's cat, Moka. This group also humoured Ms. Stowell by assisting as models in her assembly on ironing. Winter afternoon cake making, cookie baking, early AM breakfast runs to Tuts, and the frozen logger got us through the cold months. In the spring, Betsey, Christa and Jenny gave up a Saturday morning to help the local historical society clean up Woodland Cemetery as part of the group's donation of service auction off at the Parent's Auction. For the scary details, stay tuned to morning assembly in the fall of '97. Overall, we're glad to have gotten through our rookie year at Gould together. From here on in, we're veterans.

Mark Attia, Nate Deyesso, Dana Drummond, Justin Kotler, Scot Sawyer, Sho Shimoda, Lucas St. Clair

Mr. Alford's Advisee Group

Grampa Jefe's Secret Sauce Recipe: First find a good blender, then add 1 thrashin' skateboarder, 1 late piano-playing basketball jock, 1 toad-lover, 1 white bronco (not O.J.'s, Erin's), 4 blue horn balls, 1 crazy Kelly, a sprinkle of German, 1 Jefe (if Jefe is unavailable, a lit bull will do), and a whole box of Dashing Young Thespian Headed for Stardom, blend on high for one school year and served chilled.

Mrs. Johnson's Advisees

John Batten, Amy Iskandar, Elizabeth Kuzyk, Temma Stout, Jonathan Scraga, Hiroshi Yanagimoto, Laurie Young

How many of Mrs. Johnson's advisees does it take to light a charcoal grill? Dish duty was always an adventure with this group. Strazza would either stack and clear dishes or sit around. Hiro's favorite response was, "What dish duty?" Amy Iskandar was always trying to find someone else to do her dish duty for her yet she always went to Jen's dish duties. With Laurie, Betsie and Temma, dish duty brings new meaning to the word water sports. Mrs. Johnson said that dish duty supersedes all other activities. John, Hiro, and Amy have all learned by now that assembly starts at 7:45 a.m. All have been late to assembly and all have received a look from Senora when she looks at her watch and glares at the guilty party. When the year started Mrs. Johnson probably thought that since she had all returning students save two freshmen that it would be a quiet year. Boy did we prove her wrong. These two freshmen have made for a very entertaining year.

Miss Laursen's Advisees

Ms. Laursen's first advisee group was a little confusing at first but a complete success at the end. We were all new, very new to Gould. We sprung from all over earth and got along quite smoothly. Assembly appeared optional for some, advisee functions were at their peak at Pat's Pizza, and we all appreciated Ms. Laursen's cookie.

Jill Donovan, John Kim, Stephen King, Jeremy Lambson, Magnolia Niederhauser, Desiree Plata, Elizabeth Rozenthal, Brianna Trundy

Adrian Anderson, Carl Burnett, Jessica Cantelo, Joren Elias, Ben Froberg, Justin Gray, Lindsay Molyneux, Bill Scott

Mr. Jerome's Advisees

Is it true, Mr. Jerome, that your advisee group has dish duty more than any other group?

Yes.

Ok, Bill you're on window. No, no, no, Justin, you CANNOT spray if Adrian's on window. Carl, did you buy another "volunteer"? Joran, you're in charge. Someone go down to Davidson and wake Ben. Jess, you're the forkmaster, sort that silver. Lindsey, you must wear shoes in the dishroom.

Stick your neck out.

Ms. Whalen's Advisees

"We are placed on this careening mudball for such things as this.": Memorable dinners (juggling a gourd while eating an apple, an Em Snarf, pesto, pot roast, cappicinos) dish duties (dinner water/food battle, Julie did a window!), revelations about the harvesting of cloves, playing with the camera flash during assembly, printing papers, a surprise birthday party, and a group worth every bit of energy given to each other.

Ms. Lee's Advisee Group

B. Fraser, A. Gilbert, A. Sysco, S. Lie, L. Farrell, E. Covington

Mr. Morison's Advisee Group

J. Gutry, J. Harlow, D. Arsenault, C. Tartaglia, A. Dana, K. Choi, K. Gagne

Ms. Morrison's Advisee Group

Advisees: Amanda Barrett, Kevin Broderick, Liv Chase, Jake Harrity, Jana Husarova, Jen Jacques, Suwanto Kamaruddin, Chris Kitchen.

And now, from a new and different location, Ms. Morrison's advisee group . . . (THUNDEROUS APPLAUSE). Representing a plethora of states and countries, from Slovakia to Indonesia, Massachusetts to downeast Maine, the Morrison advisee group displayed its talents on the playing fields, in the classroom, and in the world at large. The group was well represented in the ske arena, with Janka, Kevin "Spartacus", Amanda and Chris light it up on the slopes, while Jake kept his hands full with the wipeouts on the mountain. Suwanto even had a sport he liked. Jen lit up the boards in girls basketball and made up for her lack of skiing with snowball fights. Advisee functions were always fun, with lots of playful sparring going on in the background.

Mr. McGuire's Advisee Group

The best way to illustrate Mr. McGuire's Advisee group is to tell about a typical dish duty. Usually Min Koo would arrive first after his morning run. The rest of us would be there by 6:20, at the latest. Then Rashi would give us a pep talk about the importance of the task before us. Once in the dishroom Brock and Burgess would engage in a political discussion unparalleled by any Senate committee. Proceeding this well formulated debate, Riss would perform his rendition of various classic Rock and Roll hits he loves so much. To complete the tour, Mr. McGuire would juggle 11 salad bowls while I, Crockett, recited passages from DAS KAPITAL. We accomplished all this while cleaning two thousand pieces of dining ware.

M. Burgess, J. Crockett, D. Riss, R. Kaslow, MK Kang, B. Pellerin

Mr. Wight's Advisee Group

Advisees: Chris Brooks, Keper Connell, Megan Edgar, Chris Everett, Asher Ghertner, Mike Huppe, Amanda Madore, Reto Morosani, and Dustin Rice

There are many reasons why rainbow trout are one of the most popular fly-rod fish in the world. Native to the western United States and northern Asia, they have been introduced to cold water environments from Yugoslavia to Argentina. They are easier to catch than brown trout, leap often when hooked, and grow exceptionally fast.

— Angler's Calendar —

There are many parallels between fly fishing and working with young people in a boarding school environment. You could say that all students are the same and it would be as untrue as it is to say that all trout are the same. Students are unique and need to be fed, nurtured, protected and sometimes advised. The goal is not to let them see or perceive that it is being done or you might scare them away.
